1. HOUDINI, Harry (Erik Weisz, 1874 – 1926). Houdini Brothers and Family Photograph. Circa 1915. Candid photograph of the Houdini family posed outdoors on a sidewalk, with a large wagon in the foreground and most subjects posed behind it. Included in the portrait are all five Weiss brothers: Nat, Leo, Bill, Harry, and Theo, along with Beatrice (Houdini's wife), two children, and five other women, including Houdini's mother, Cecelia Steiner Weiss. Scalloped edges. $4 \times 4 \%$ ". Stamped Houdini / Harry Houdini Collection / Original" on verso, with inked notation above stating, "Weiss Family." Scrapbook remnants to verso, one corner clipped. Old ink notations (likely from Houdini family members) identifying three of the individuals: Bess, "Doc" (Leopold Weiss), and Dash (Theo Hardeen). A personal, charming, and likely unpublished image of the Houdini brothers and family. Images of Houdini with his mother are rare.

2. HOUDINI, Harry (Erik Weisz, 1874 - 1926). Houdini Traveling Trunk. New York: BAL, 1910s. Large and imposing theatrical traveling trunk, owned and Used by Harry Houdini. Used by the famous escapologist and magician to transport his props and apparatus. Edges bound in riveted metal, with heavy corners. Lettered on the exterior of the lid in white with the name "Houdini" in block capitals. $36 \times 22 \times 26$ ". With attractive patina and craquelure to varnished finish. The lower surface of the trunk has been reinforced with plywood sheets due to age, stress, and damage. One of only a handful of trunks to survive the nearly 100 years since Houdini's death. A remarkable and handsome relic of a career that took the great magician across the globe and America.

DEFINING HOUDINI

3. [HOUDINI]. VIZETELLY, Frank. A Desk-Book of 25,000 Words Frequently Mispronounced. New York and London: Funk & Wagnalls Company, 1917. Blue cloth gilt, frontispiece illustration. Square 8vo. Thumbing to pages, minor stains, rubbing to cloth and minor fraying of extremities, front hinge starting. THE FIRST REFERENCE BOOK TO CONTAIN HOUDINI'S NAME and bearing the autographed bookplate of Beatrice Houdini on the front pastedown. FROM HOUDINI'S LIBRARY. INSCRIBED AND SIGNED on the flyleaf by the master magician: "Given to me by my sister Gladys for Christmas 1918 / H Houdini." Above the inscription is the notation "Page 487." At that page is the following definition of the word "Houdini," highlighted by two inked marks: "[Am. Expert in extrication.]" Houdini's name remains synonymous with magic and escapes nearly 100 years after his death. In 1916, he wrote to Mable Wagnalls of Funk & Wagnalls asking to be included in forthcoming editions of the firms' well-known dictionaries. They would eventually comply, publishing a definition in the 1920 edition. Houdini was the first magician to receive this kind of coverage, but apparently his pleading worked before the dictionary was issued, as his ownership of this volume makes clear.

4. HOUDINI, Harry (Erik Weisz, 1874 – 1926). Buried Alive! Egyptian Fakirs Outdone. Master Mystifier. Houdini. Cleveland: Otis Litho., ca. 1924. Eight-sheet color lithographed poster advertising a sensational stunt that Houdini would never perform – his escape from a coffin buried under mounds of heavy earth. Houdini's head floats above the Egyptian scene featuring The Sphinx. An imposing, impressive, classic, and powerful image. 109 x 89". Linen backed. Expert restoration in margins and at old sheet breaks and folds, minor discoloration in Houdini's face. B+.

LOCKS, HANDCUFFS, AND RESTRAINTS

11. [HOUDINI] Mirror Cuff Key. Northampton: Mick Hanzlik, 2013. Finely crafted replica of the key for the famous Mirror Cuff, constructed from white bronze. Number 37 of 100, framed in a shadowbox together with the SIGNED COA from the creator and master locksmith. 9 x 9". The Mirror Cuff challenge was one of Houdini's earliest headline-grabbing stunts. On March 17, 1904 he struggled to free himself from the famous "Mirror Cuffs," a mechanically complex cuff that reportedly took five years to develop and manufacture. Houdini's escape took some two hours to effect as the lock required an equally complicated key to open, making picking it a genuinely difficult feat. Sold together with: Looking Into the Mirror by Hanzlik, an analysis of the Mirror Cuff challenge and the construction of the replica key and matching cuffs.

12. Bean Giant Handcuff. Patented in 1887. "Escape proof" handcuffs devised by Captain Bean who offered a $500 reward to anyone who could escape from the restraints. Original key. Width 6 1/4". Pitted, visible wear. Working.

13. Houdini's Russian Manacle. Australia: Stockade Locksmiths (lan McColl), ca. 2010. Expert recreation of the famous double-locking restraint modeled known as the "Russian Manacle" used to restrain Harry Houdini. 7 1/4 x 6 1/4 x 1 1/8". Exceptionally heavy construction. Original key. Working. One of a handful made by McColl, considered a master locksmith and one-time escape artist. The Russian Manacle housed what was reportedly one of the most complicated locks ever used in a handcuff.

14. Cavity Lock. Australia: Stockade Locksmiths (Ian McColl), ca. 2010. Oversized lock with original key. Modeled on the version used by Houdini. The lock incorporates a secret compartment at its rear which opens when a button (disguised as a stud) is depressed. Inside are hidden lockpicks and other tools of the escape artist's trade. Large and heavy. 9 x 5 ½". Working.

15. Plug 8 Boer War Handcuffs. Broad and heavy set of handcuffs with screw-type key and steel plug for the keyway; the key's end includes the prongs to remove the plug. Closed width $5 \frac{1}{4}$ ". With original key. Working.

16. Three Sets of Vintage Handcuffs. Including a Tower & Lyon Double-Lock with original key, Mattatuck cuffs with keys, and a set of Caveney Bottleneck cuffs lacking the keys. The longest set $10^{-3}4^{\circ}$.

BOOKS & PERIODICALS

19. HOUDINI, Harry (Erik Weisz, 1874 – 1926). The Unmasking of Robert-Houdin and Handcuff Secrets. London: George Routledge & Sons, 1909. Brown pictorial cloth. Frontispiece of Houdini, plates and illustrations. A combination of two of his works, released by Routledge for the British market. With "Imported by E.P. Dutton" overslip tipped to title page. 8vo. All but disbound, old tape stain to fly and front pastedown, page edges soiled. INSCRIBED, INITIALED, AND SIGNED TWICE by Houdini on the flyleaf: "I bot [sic] this book from the Becker Sale HH / Harry Houdini / Signed July 28/1918" and again below: "To Harry H. Poppe / Best Wishes from / the Author / Harry Handcuff Houdini / Oct 20/1921." The single large block capital letter H in Houdini's lower signature here was infrequently used by the magician when autographing his books.

RARE SHIPBOARD SOUVENIR

20. [HOUDINI] BENNETT, Arnold. Your United States. Impressions of a First Visit. New York and London: Harper & Brothers Publishers, 1912. Full red cloth lettered and ruled gilt. Frontispiece and plates by Frank Craig. 8vo. Spine a bit dark, general shelfwear. Good to Very good. INSCRIBED AND SIGNED by Houdini: "Safe Bind / Safe Find' Does not apply / to the undersigned. / Harry Handcuff Houdini / July 14/1913 / on board NDL / Kronzprinzcessin Cecelia." With a second gift inscription on the flyleaf: "To Betty – With all good luck on her first voyage across the Atlantic – from Auntie / July – the Eighth – 1913."

Laid in is a copy of the shipboard concert program for July 12, 1913 featuring Houdini in a "special mid-ocean performance" featuring a range of classic magic tricks (Egg Bag, Burnt Turban, Color Changing Handkerchief, Hindoo Needle Trick), but only one escape ("The world famous handcuff trick"). The first gift inscription in the book (to "Betty") was followed several days later with Houdini's page-length inscription and autograph.

In all likelihood, the recipient of this volume received it from her "auntie" before embarking. After witnessing Houdini's show on the ship, Betty had the book autographed by him to further commemorate her trip. Houdini made several tours of Europe, and programs from his trip aboard the S.S. Imperator (and photographs of him on deck with Teddy Roosevelt) occasionally come to market. But the program for his appearance on this ship – let alone autographs from the trip – are far rarer.

EPHEMERA & PHOTOGRAPHS

51. [HOUDINI] DOYLE, Arthur Conan (1859 – 1930). Important Four-Page ALS Regarding Houdini and His Escapes. Circa 1926. The author and creator of Sherlock Holmes writes to an unknown correspondent regarding Harry Houdini. Doyle writes extensively about Houdini, his death (on October 31, 1926), and his abilities. In the upper right corner of the first card, Doyle writes, "Confidential," continuing the main message with, "I ... had such a prophecy. Since then we have twice had his coming doom told in my own ... circle. "Houdini" is doomed. Never more will he stand in the way of God's light! That was the last. I know another private circle where also it was clearly told.

"I have always known that Houdini was himself a strong medium. HE may himself have stifled it and fought against it but it was there. I could prove this. I was thinking of writing an article on him & with the reinforcement which your article gives & certainly could do so.

"I have also always suspected him of using low psychic powers – fakir powers – in his escapes. I don't think that when a man is thrown into deep water in a corded box and is personally seen swimming on the crest of a wave it is a "trick." There is more in it than that. But he was a very deep man & capable of having elaborate trick boxes made, with explanations perhaps [by] his wife & assistant which could camouflage the true nature of the performance. His vigor against spiritualism would be the biggest camouflage of all.

"I see a connecting link which would make all this feasible. If it were so I would explain the very serious view which the spirit world took of his actions. His attempt to prove Margery to be a cheat by putting articles in her electric box and cabinet seemed to justify their resentment.

"Deeply as I differed, and I may add deeply distrusted him, I liked and admired him.

"... Give me all you can about Houdini. I won't use your name without leave. There is going, I think, to be a huge controversy. I saw his library valued at 100.00 pounds. I went over it & should value the book part at about 500 pounds. I am no judge of the playbills." [SIGNED] "A Conan Doyle." Inked on four sides of two printed notecards bearing Doyle's "Bingnell Wood, Minstead, Lyndhurst, Hants." address at the top of the recto of each, and lettered entirely in Doyle's distinctive hand. Minor staining to left edges of cards, else very good.

A remarkable and significant document regarding the relationship between Houdini and Conan Doyle and a revealing look at the great author's misguided judgement of the magician and the source of his abilities, and offering a revealing look at his deep belief in spiritualism and its apparent powers.

52. [HOUDINI] DOYLE, Arthur Conan (1859 – 1930). Important Archive of Houdini and Doyle Letters Regarding Spiritualism. Six ALS/ANSs from Doyle to retired Captain John Allen Bartlett, together with a TLS from Houdini to Bartlett, all regarding the great overarching interest at the end of his life: spiritualism, spirit mediums, and communication with the dead by the living.

Penned in the 1920s in Doyle's distinctive hand, the missives are addressed to Bartlett and are written on Doyle's printed notecards, two versions of his 8vo stationery, and a larger lined blue sheet. The notecards reveal personal details about Doyle's health ("I am still very tied by the leg – or by the heart – but I am happy"), showcase a bit of his humor ("You seem to be the man in England whom I might challenge to a 25 yard race."), and discuss public opinion on matters of spiritualism ("I think we are scoring every where. ... reason and proof are all with us. I think we see this turn of the tide & it will flow up now for ever."). A short ALS from Doyle alludes to his output of letters ("I am doing 100 letters a day – such is the interest in the matter on the part of the public – but I wanted to thank you for your very interesting letter which shall keep & refer back to.")

The longer ALSs also touch on matters of spiritualism. Doyle offers to publish any book Bartlett might write on the subject in the letter dated May 28, 1920: "If you had a book which had any spiritual flavour in it, stories or otherwise, I would feel justified in allotting 30 or so from my Spiritual Fund towards getting it published." The letter also includes a mention of his last Sherlock Holmes volume: "If you read my little story "One Crowded House" in "The Last Bow" you will see the kind of thing. I'll send it if you have no library there."

A second ALS specifically discusses Houdini: "Your letter about Houdini was very interesting. I begin also to think that it is occult and that the disbelievement [sic] is a cover to it. Possibly his widely announced searching for spiritual proofs is also a cover. It seems extraordinary that a man should be searching for a demonstration at the very time when he is giving one. Could you ask your friends & see if you get any information about it. I am ... puzzled. He is a remarkable man, and very deep with a superficial appearance of candour."

The longest letter refers to many matters of interest to spiritualists, including William Crookes ("He gave a long interview ... in which he reiterated everything. He grew more spiritualistic for getting his wife's photos at Crewe made a deep impression on him."), Sir Oliver Lodge ("No recognition on the part of a medium could tell him of a photo not yet received in England, of the name of his favourite song ... the book is a mine of information about other world conditions."), and about his own beliefs: "My own position ... I have seen my mother and there is an end to it." And he refers to the idea of fraudulent mediumship with the line: "... What lunacy it all is – this idea of a huge senseless conspiracy to deceive."

All of these letters are SIGNED or INITIALED "ACD," or "A Conan Doyle" in ink. A few old mailing folds remain, but generally very good to near fine condition overall.

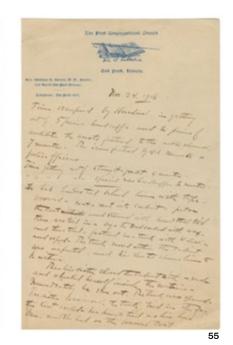

The Houdini TLS on his engraved mourning stationery is dated June 8, 1920 and is addressed to Bartlett in Bristol. Houdini writes from his London address at Day's agency, with a note about an enclosure of photographs (possibly spirit photos?). INSCRIBED after the salutation in Houdini's hand, "to you both," and boldly SIGNED "Houdini," and with an additional note inked by Houdini in the lower left, reading, "Am awfully pressed for time pardon short letter." With old folds from mailing, else very good.

A fascinating trove of documents related to the intense interest of Houdini in spiritualism, along with his "strange friendship" with Doyle and the great author's unusual views not only on life beyond the veil, but Houdini's abilities and beliefs.

113. [HOUDINI] Scrapbook of Houdini Ephemera and News Clippings. 1920s - 30s. Thick square 8vo album kept by an unknown individual (but possibly Ray Gamble of California), filled with hundreds of clippings related to Houdini's final season and the years just following his untimely death. Included are a program from the Maryland Theatre for Houdini's final tour featuring his three-part show; a handsome Christmas card from Houdini's brother, Hardeen on heavy cardstock; an unpublished candid snapshot of Houdini with two other men; and a mourning invitation to unveiling of the Houdini monument at Macpelah Cemetery made out in ink to Houdini's lifelong friend Joseph Hayman, who worked with the magician in his early days. The majority of the contents are clippings covering Houdini's last days and the weeks following his death, with eulogies and memorials upon his passing from friends, assistants, and the world at large; "predictions" of psychics that he would die; stories regarding the serum administered him which would hopefully save his life; his widow's reaction to Houdini's passing; and more. Later articles cover Bess Houdini's last days and death, Houdini seances, and related topics, with two or three small clippings stretching into the 1950s and the Paramount Houdini movie starring Tony Curtis. Full smooth calf with gilt decorations and turn-ins, marbled endsheets, T.E.G., spine gilt-lettered with the name "HOUDINI." Front hinge reinforced, but very good condition overall. A very neatly kept record of Houdini's last years and the time beyond his death, including revealing stories surrounding his last days. his burial, and beyond. A fascinating archive that paints a clear picture of how the Houdini legend began, and began growing immediately upon his death.

114. [HOUDINI] Oversize Scrapbook of Houdini Ephemera and Clippings. 1900s - 80s. Folio-size (25 ½ x 20") bespoke scrapbook filled with newspaper broadsheets, clippings, and related ephemera regarding the life, career, death, and supposed afterlife of Harry Houdini. Included are hundreds of pieces extracted from both American and English newspapers, many of them full pages and well-illustrated, chronicling Houdini's attempts to contact the spirit world and his association with Arthur Conan Doyle, as well as advertisements for his shows, announcements of his death, stories regarding his performances, and more; later clippings describe and discuss Houdini seances held after his death (running well in to the 1980s), the Harold Kellock-authored Houdini biography and excerpts therefrom, and other elements of the legend built up around Houdini's life and untimely death. Also included are a handful of reprinted Houdini challenges, handbills, and broadsides, a reprinted photograph of Houdini in a strait jacket, and an original candid photograph of Beatrice Houdini circa 1940. Brown paper-covered boards over cloth spine, with gilt-lettered title label to front board reading "Harry Houdini / King of Handcuffs." Approximately half-filled, and including hundreds of items in total, providing a fascinating view and considerable insight to Houdini and his life both on stage and from beyond the grave.

115. [HOUDINI] HARDEEN, Theo (1876–1945). Inventory and Price List of Houdini Illusions and Manacles. Circa 1944. Original four-page carbon list produced by Hardeen, brother of Houdini, and annotated in his own hand with prices, listing and partially describing handcuffs and illusions owned by Houdini and offered for sale by Hardeen. Accompanied by a manuscript postcard SIGNED by Hardeen ("Theo") and addressed to "Sam" [Margules?] further explaining the list. Among the property offered are Houdini's Milk Can ($100), Kellar's Spirit Cabinet ($250), a Substitution Trunk ($125), and dozens of restraints, including many on three different display boards. Many of Houdini's props and cuffs were sold by Hardeen to Sidney Radner, though this list enumerates dozens that were not. A fascinating and historically significant list.

168. [SPIRITUALISM] Archive of Manuscripts, Notebooks, and Publications from a Spirit Medium. A chronicle of the Edward Erickson (d. 1974), a WWI veteran who lost his hearing and power of speech in the conflict and devoted much of his life after his service to the study of his apparently psychic powers and the practice of spiritualism. The archive includes 11 notebooks in his hand, filled with notes dating from 1923 - 1926, regarding all manner of spiritual and mediumistic subjects and his contact with various "spirit guides" including specifically his "soul mate," Gloria. The memorandum books are wide ranging, and filled almost entirely. Among the topics covered are the "two lives" all men live (spiritual and astral), messages from spirit guides apparently contacted by Erickson ("We are permitted to help [those in the real or living world], but with discretion."), "healing magnetism" and other apparent powers, the "astral plane" and lessons learned through the exploration of this space, among hundreds of other subjects. Erickson writes about being contacted by spirits: "Two spirits came and said to you, as you woke up, that their object in view, was to educate you." He also records many lessons learned, places visited, and discoveries apparently made while in a trance state or through the aid of or communication with various spiritual beings, some he claims having visited him from ancient Egypt and elsewhere. In addition, Erickson's notes include communication with Madame Helena Blavatsky, mystic and co-founder of the Theosophical Society and Charles Leadbeater, author, member of the Theosophical Society and co-initiator of the Co-Free Masonry (a branch for women and men). Much of the material is of a Christian or religious nature, with many allusions made to Jesus, prayer, Accompanying the notebooks are a 53-page typed transcription of much of their contents.

Sold together with a collection of newspaper clippings, handwritten notes, and ephemeral material owned by Erickson (including one sheaf of clippings related to the development of the atomic bomb), and a large group publications from his library, including material from the Theosophical Society (Theosophic Messenger), the Rosicrucians, Greater Mysteries of Ancient Egypt by Aegyptus (1931), issues of Spiritual Science magazine, The Voice of the AIM, and other similar periodicals, and many other pamphlets on spiritualism or related subjects. Many of these publications bear Erickson's notes or his rubber ownership stamps on their covers. In all, a fascinating trove of material related to life in the great beyond and alternative schools of thought regarding the human mind and its unknown frontiers.

171. [VENTRILOQUISTS] Large Collection of Ventriloquists' Ephemera and Photographs. 1890s – 1980s. Approximately 80 items, including an early chapbook How Anyone May Become a Ventriloquist (R. March, ca. 1890s); two modern sets of ventriloquists trading cards; brochures and advertisements for Arthur Moose, Loring Campbell and Fred Robison; postcards and flyers advertising various vent acts; and a large selection of photographs of "belly talkers," most from the mid-century period, including images of Edgar Bergen, Arthur Prince (one portrait SIGNED), W.S. Berger, Senor Wences, George Blake, Dick Berry, Diabolo, Les Chapy, Daniel Remy, Joe Lantiere, Bob Mundstedt, Vocalys, Brenda and Eddie, Al Redding, Bill Boley, and others. Largest 10 x 8". A few images SIGNED. A fascinating and diverse collection.

172. ZANCIGS, The (Julius and Agnes). RPPC Portraits of the Zancigs. London: Campbell Gray, ca. 1907. Three-quarter length images of the mindreading duo who billed their act as "two minds with but a single thought." Divided backs, postally unused. Very good.

150/300

173. BERGERON, Bev (1930 – 2020). Gimmicked and Gag Golf Clubs. Including a collapsible aluminum club, a Walsh Appearing Golf Club, and a wobbly/bendable club. The longest 44". Worn from professional use, but good working condition. These unusual clubs were integral to Bergeron's well-traveled golf act, a comedy routine in which he produced clubs, golf balls, and executed a variety of effects all based on a golfing theme.

300/600

174. Bathing Beauty. Colon: Abbott's Magic Novelty Co., 1950s. Culpitt's comedy effect; the lady on the cloth banner is spared all indignity when her cape and suit are removed; the picture magically changes twice as it is folded and unfolded. At the conclusion, the tide has come in – up to her neck, to hide her state of undress. Lacks tiny cape and bathing costume (which may be replaced with silks). 21 $\frac{1}{2}$ x 17 $\frac{3}{4}$ ". Staining to cloth. An early and attractive Abbott-made model.

150/250

175. Billiard Ball Stand. Berlin: Conradi, 1930s. Mechanical stand facilitates the production of red billiard balls in the magician's hands. Six gimmicked cups and one without preparation. Includes a single solid matching ball. Nickel plated. Height 17 ¼". Very good working condition.

800/1,200

176. Crystal Clock Dial. Martinka & Co., ca. 1900. A clear glass dial supports a single hand at its center. When spun, the pointer stops on any previously-chosen number. Diameter 15". With packing case. A handsome example of this classic prop.

800/1,200

177. The Change Box. European, ca. 1880. A colored bead dropped in the vase changes its hue four times when dropped back out of the vessel. Finely turned and polished. Height 3 3/4". With two (of five) required beads. See St. J. De L'Escap's Les Secrets de la Prestidigitation (1913) for further information.

400/800

178. Melting Pot Coin Vase. Circa 1890. Finely turned hardwood vase vanishes, produces, or changes coins placed inside. Single flap. Double-plunger gimmick. Height $4\frac{1}{2}$ ". Near fine.

300/600

179. Millet Bell. Circa 1890. Turned hardwood bell with clapper under which a quantity of vanished seed or millet appears on command. Mechanical construction with spring plunger gimmick. Height 5 1/4".

300/600

180. Morison Pill Box. Contemporary Indonesian [?] model of this classic close-up trick finely turned in hardwood. A ball is removed from the vase, vanishes, then reappears inside. Unlike the traditional ball vase, it is a solid sphere that reappears in the vase. Height 7 3/4". Near fine.

400/800

181. Jumbo Die Box. Cashmere, WA: Magic House of Babcock, 2000s. Oversize version of the classic comedy magic trick; the die vanishes from the handsome cabinet, reappearing elsewhere. Hardwood cabinet with two double-doors. 4" die. Hallmarked. Very good.

250/500

182. Bird Box. After Martinka & Co., ca. 1890. A chosen card is placed into a wooden box and the lid is closed. When opened, the card has transformed into a live bird and the card is discovered elsewhere. Handsome hardwood construction with ebonized accents. 4 $\frac{1}{2}$ x 3 $\frac{1}{4}$ x 4 $\frac{1}{2}$ ". With key. Good working condition.

250/500

183. Davenport Cabinet. Circa 1900. Small mahogany cabinet with one sliding drawer. Objects placed inside are spirited away only to reappear elsewhere. Height 4". Finely made.

250/500

184. Demon Second Sight Casket. London: Davenports, 1940s. Small brass-bound hardwood box with lock into which a billet, photo, or other item is placed. Despite its locked condition, the mentalist instantly "sees" the contents. Subtle locking mechanism allows the casket to be examined. Mahogany finish. $7 \times 4 \frac{3}{4} \times 1 \frac{3}{4}$ ". Basic instructions. Good.

200/400

185. Latest Cigarette Production Box. London: Davenports, 1940s. Harwood box conceals a spring-loaded mechanism that secretly delivers cigarettes into his hand as he drops articles inside. The box appears to be empty yet is loaded with a large quantity of cigarettes. 8 x 4 2 $\frac{1}{2}$ ". Well made.

150/250

186. Double Billiard Ball Cup. Circa 1900. Mechanical cast metal stand with two arms holding short nickel-plated cups, each gimmicked for the production of a single red billiard ball. Height 6 ½". Paint chipped and finish worn, but good working condition. First we have seen in this design.

250/500

300/600

188. Appearing Canary Cage. Circa 1910s. Gilt-painted wire cage with hanging wooden perch. Mounted to a brass platform. A live canary appears inside on command. Small metal manufacturer's plate on door. Height 14". Roller blind in need of rewinding.

300/600

189. Flyto Cage. European, ca. 1900. Nickel plated birdcage and stand; the cage is removed from its holder and vanishes, only to reappear from where it was removed moments earlier. Unusual design (possibly a marriage of parts) with springloaded door to cage allowing the use of a real canary. Heavy weighted base. Height 15". Usual wear and soiling, but very good overall.

500/1,000

190. Cage Transformation Box. British, ca. 1880. Toleware box elaborately finished is shown empty, and the door is closed. Upon reopening the case, a wire birdcage – entirely filling the interior – has appeared. Can also be used to transform articles into the cage or vice versa. Cage includes door to accommodate a small bird. Height 5 $^3\!\!/4"$. Finish well worn. Regardless, a handsome example of this Victorian prop.

191. Vanishing Bird Cage. German, ca. 1920. Well-made wire cage with perch vanishes without cover from between the magician's hands. 6 $\frac{1}{4}$ x 4 $\frac{1}{4}$ x 5 $\frac{3}{4}$ ". Thin design with subtle built-in sleeve guard. Lacks one wire bar at rear, else good.

200/400

192. Crystal Casket. European, ca. 1880. Attractive metal box with glass panels on all six sides is seen to be empty, yet fills with flowers, toy balls, or silk handkerchiefs on command. Includes rings at either side for hanging or the attachment of a cord. Includes original release pin. 9 $\frac{1}{2}$ x 5 x 5". Finish worn, minor paint spatter to upper glass. An early example.

500/800

193. Giant Miser's Dream Chalice. Circa 1910. Oversized chalice-like vessel on spun metal base with handles flaking it and a finial-topped lid. The magician produces coins from apparently thin air and deposits them in the vase. He clamps on the lid and when it is removed, the coins have vanished, or transformed into a small rabbit. Height 15 3/4". Kellar droppers in handles. An unusual variation of this conjuring prop and the first we have seen in this form.

500/1,000

194. Miser's Dream Bucket. European, 1930s. Champagne-type bucket facilitates the seemingly endless production of coins from mid-air. With two droppers and loud spring-loaded ringing mechanism concealed in the base. Attractive cast lion heads with hold long metal rings in their mouths at either side. 8 x 8". A few dents, but very good working condition.

300/600

195. Tarbell Orange Vase Combination. Los Angeles: F.G. Thayer, ca. 1927. A small orange, removed from a wooden vase, multiplies, vanishes, or reappears; one orange changes to a silk handkerchief, which then jumps inside the vase, or vice versa. A combination Ball Vase/Ball and Silk Vase and Multiplying Ball routine, all in one. Finely wood turned vase lacquered in black, with gold finial and legs and green interior, wooden "orange" and matching shell. Diameter 2 %". Minor rubbing and wear to finish; very good condition overall. RARE. Devised by Dr. Harlan Tarbell and advertised as part of his famous Tarbell Course in Magic, the Orange Vase was offered for sale for $8.50 in the 1920s. Tarbell worked in Chicago, but the prop was crafted in Los Angeles. Thayer was the acknowledged master magical craftsman of the era, and arguably the finest wood turner in the field. The Orange Vase is perhaps the finest example of his mastery at the lathe.

2.500/5.000

196. Fairy Coin Glass. Paris: Voisin [?], ca. 1900. Blue tinted glass conceals a spring-loaded metal compartment, which holds a stack of coins that may be released through a button on the side of the vessel. Height 3". Fine.

200/400

197. Enchanted Ring. Florida: Paul Diamond, 1970s. A brass bangle is trapped by a pin running through a large die. On command, the bangle penetrates the pin. Die 1 $\frac{1}{4}$ " cube.

100/200

198. Chinese Cyclotron. Holland: Eddy Taytelbaum, ca. 1970. A small, solid magnetic tube holds a wooden head, which jumps out of a holder to discover a selected card. Tube 1 3 /₄ x 1 1 /₄". Near fine.

400/600

199. Ring Box of Buddha. Holland: Eddy Taytelbaum, ca. 1960s. A ring of a chosen color penetrates a solid wand threaded through a miniature pagoda-like box. Hand painted and pinstriped gold and black finish. 3 $\frac{1}{2}$ x 1 $\frac{1}{2}$ x 2 $\frac{1}{4}$ ". Very good overall.

200. Ring Box of Buddha. Holland: Eddy Taytelbaum, ca. 1960s. A ring of a chosen color penetrates a solid wand threaded through a miniature pagoda-like box. Hand painted and pinstriped with an unusual green and white. $3 \frac{1}{2} \times 1 \frac{1}{2} \times 2 \frac{1}{4}$ ". Very good overall.

201. Mini Duck Bucket. California: Mark Teufel, ca. 2002. A small wooden bucket is shown empty, then articles are produced from inside. Modeled after the classic Duck Bucket prop, finely made in small size from polished exotic hardwood with brass trim. Height 4 1/4". Fine.

202. Siamese Ribbon. Middlesex: Alan Warner, ca. 1990s. A ribbon runs through a small cabinet. It is cut in two and both doors of the cabinet are closed. Immediately both doors are opened, and the ribbon is seen restored. Hand-painted wooden cabinet. With extra ribbon. $4 \times 1 \frac{1}{2} \times 2 \frac{3}{2}$ ". Very good. 200/400

67

203. Mini Mental. Middlesex: Alan Warner, 1990s. Four colored blocks are arranged on a numbered stand in any order desired. There is no force. When the plaque below the blocks is removed, the magician's prediction of the chosen order is proven to be correct. Small version, length $6\,\frac{1}{2}$ ". Minor rubbing to paint.

204. Pentra. Middlesex: Alan Warner, ca. 1990s. A mummy figure penetrates a solid teakwood blade running through a wooden slot. Box $\frac{1}{2}$ x 4 x 2 $\frac{1}{4}$ ". With instructions. Near fine.

205. Thru N' Thru. Middlesex: Alan Warner, ca. 1990s. A spectator chooses one of two plastic cards, each with four holes in its center. Both cards are placed into a lacquered wooden frame with a round window. The performer laces a string through both cards. On command, the chosen card is released from the binding and rises from the frame. 4 x 2". With instructions. Very good.

150/250

206. Block-Buster. Middlesex: Alan Warner, ca. 1990s. A plastic slide divides a red wooden tube into two compartments. A wooden block can be heard hitting the slide when dropped in the tube, the slide is still able to pass through. Tube 3 $\frac{1}{4}$ " long. Very good.

150/250

207. Smiley. Cornwall: Alan Warner, 1990s. Tiny chips with smiley and frowning emoji-like decorations change when put in and out of a finely made teakwood holder. Box 2×2^n . With original instructions. Near fine.

200/300

209. Mummy. Cornwall: Alan Warner, ca. 2000s. A mummy in a small coffin floats in mid-air. The mummy vanishes from the sarcophagus reappearing in a separate sarcophagus some distance away. Sarcophagi $2 \times 2 \times 4 \sqrt[3]{4}$ ". Custom made; one of two with both caskets featuring jeweled lids (other models had only one decorated lid). Original instructions. Near fine.

300/600

210. Clown Caper. Middlesex: Alan Warner, ca. 1980s. A book of cloth scraps is shown along with a blank black cloth which is rolled. A large pair of novelty scissors causes the cloth in the book to become cut into different shapes and appear in the form of a clown on the black cloth. Includes all props. Very good.

150/250

211. Wonder Block Thru Wand (Mini). Holland Magic Studio, ca. 2018. A small metal magic wand is placed in a wooden holder. A wooden block is rested atop the wand, and then pushed through it. The doors of the holder are opened and the block is removed, now threaded on the wand. Length 7". Very good.

200/400

212. Pencil-Tration. New York: Richard Himber, ca. 1964. A borrowed ring appears linked on the pencil even as the pencil is held at both ends by a spectator. Equipped with an internal 14-karat gold gimmick and resetting tool, housed in the original red leather box with matching "front" and original outer paper box. Working. Rare.

600/1,200

213. No-Assistant Nest of Boxes. Colon: Abbott's Magic Novelty Co., 1950s. A borrowed ring, watch, or coin reappears in the smallest of three nested boxes, all bound with rope or ribbon. Loads from the exterior. Largest box a 5 $\frac{1}{2}$ " cube. First example we have seen.

214. Viking-Himber Nest of Boxes. McAllen, Viking-Haenchen, ca. 1999. Three locked and nested hardwood boxes from which the magician can reproduce borrowed, vanished objects. No assistant or special stage furniture required; boxes remain in view throughout performance. Includes Devil's Hank, instructions, and boxes. As new.

215. RICHARDI (Aldo Izquierdo, 1923 – 85). Richiardi's Blooming Bouquet. 1970s. Feather flower bouquet, green and barren of buds, slowly and visibly blooms large red flowers at the magician's command. Height approximately 19". Controlled by two gimmicks, for the inner and outer groups of flowers. Working. With a letter of provenance tracing the ownership of the prop, and a program for Richardi's World Festival of Magic and Witchcraft (1971).

216. Sand & Sugar Canisters. Colon: Abbott's Magic, ca. 1945. A quantity of sand is poured into a large metal canister from a smaller canister until the large canister is overflowing as many as four times. Height of larger canister 9". Near fine. 300/600

226. Prediction Watch. Circa 1940. Elgin pocket watch which facilitates the prediction of a randomly chosen time. The stem of the timepiece is pulled and a spectator turns the knob freely while the watch is out of sight; even so, the magician knows what time is stopped at. Similar (but predating) the Geneva Prediction Watch popularized by Collectors' Workshop. Diameter 2 ½".

227. The Enchanted Chambers of Sea-Ling. Richard Gerlitz, ca. 2014. Goldfish are seen swimming about in an etched glass tube resting on a short base. The tube is covered, and moments later the fish have vanished. The tube is used to cover another glass container matching the first and when removed not long thereafter, the fish have reappeared. Height of tubes (inclusive of bases and feet) 13 3/4". Original instructions. One of twelve units manufactured. As new.

2.000/4.000

228. Sea-Ling's Dancing Skeletons. Richard Gerlitz, ca. 2014. The magician demonstrates a finely made praxinoscope. Placing a set of skeleton images in the viewer, the drum is spun, and as two spectators watch the dancing pictures, the identities of two cards visibly appear in the tombstones below and beside the skeletons. Height 9". Original box (taped). Height 9". Hallmarked. Very good.

1,500/2,500

229. Calculator and Prediction Book. Arizona: Richard Gerlitz, 2008. After several calculations are entered, the performer shows the first four numbers of a borrowed bill's serial number match the digits on the screen of an electronic calculator. Alternate routine uses a date book to produce a card associated with the calculated total. Calculator 2 $\frac{1}{2}$ x 1 $\frac{3}{4}$ ". Original instructions. Fine.

230. Gerlitz Card to Money Clip. Arizona: Richard Gerlitz, 2000s. A special date is named. The playing card at the corresponding date in a small book matches a folded card in the magician's money clip that has been in view throughout the performances. Includes gaffed clip, date books, and instructions.

200/300

231. La Glace Liquide. Richard Gerlitz, ca. 2009. 200/400

234. True Love. Arizona: Richard Gerlitz, ca. 2010 A solid finger ring penetrates the finely made miniature sword when dropped into the tube holding (and covering) the blade. Height 8 $\frac{1}{2}$ ". Includes instructions. Hallmarked. Very good.

235. Gerlitz/Stull Prediction Watch. Arizona: Mantle Magic (Richard Gerlitz), ca. 2005. The magician predicts what time the hands of a pocket watch stop at when the case is closed and the stem is spun by a volunteer. Fine mechanism incorporated into the working of the watch. Handmade by Gerlitz and incorporated into a 14k GF Waltham pocket watch with Masonic symbols on the dial. Original instructions. Fine.

2,000/3,000

236. Back in Time. Arizona: Mantle Magic (Richard Gerlitz), 2010s. A pocket watch with engraved case is displayed. The numbers on the face are backward. With a spectator holding the watch, the hands run backward, then stop on a time named by the volunteer. Includes original instructions and gimmick. With a COA signed by the maker and bearing the serial number B111. As new.

2,000/3,000

237. Masonic Mystery Vault. Arizona: Mantle Magic (Richard Gerlitz), 2010s. The magician's masonic emblem ring vanishes from his hands only to reappear in the "mystery vault" which has been on display throughout the performance. The vault must be unlocked with a "secret masonic code" to free the ring from inside. Length $5\,1/2$ ". With instructions. As new.

500/1,000

238. Two Gerlitz Close-Up Tricks. Arizona: Richard Gerlitz, 2010s. Including the Reverse Monte (cards are mixed face down yet the blue-backer cannot be located; as a climax, a $100 bill appears); and Precision Prediction, a clever adaptation of the Out to Lunch principle. Both complete and as new with original instructions and all props.

272. ALEXANDER. C. (1880 - 1954). The Inner Secrets of Psychology, Vols. 1 - 5. Los Angeles: C. Alexander Publishing, 1924. Five volumes in publisher's blue embossed cloth stamped in gilt. Portrait frontispiece of Alexander in each volume, 8vos. Faint rubbing to corners and ends; some soiling internally in vol. 5: overall, very good, Scarce as a complete set. Offered at the high price of $25 per set in 1924, few copies of Alexander's "magnum opus" were sold. The books were issued as a way to parlay Alexander's success on stage into a profitable mail order business that offered crystal balls, horoscopes, and other "mystical" products. This "self-help" course was meant to assist readers in discovering their innate mental powers. The text dispensed many common sense (and some uncommon) ideas in its 900 pages. What readers did not know is that the course was "written" by Alexander after his assistants, the Nartell Twins, did research on his behalf by cutting the most interesting passages from other published psychology books found at public libraries while on tour with his show.

Condition of lots, Warranties and Representations - All lots are sold "AS IS" and without recourse, and neither Potter and Potter Auctions, Inc. nor its consignor(s) makes any warranties or representations, express or implied with respect to such lots. Neither Potter and Potter Auctions, Inc. nor its consignor(s) makes any express or implied warranty or representation of any kind or nature with respect to merchantability, fitness for purpose, correctness of the catalogue or other description of the physical condition, size, quality, rarity, importance, medium, material, genuineness, attribution, provenance, period, source, origin, completeness, historical significance of any lot sold. The absence of any reference to the condition of a lot does not imply that the lot is in perfect condition or completely free from wear and tear, imperfections or the effects of aging. No statement, whether written or oral, and whether made in the catalogue. or in supplements to the catalogue, an advertisement, a bill of sale, a posting or announcement, the remarks of an auctioneer, or otherwise, shall be deemed to create any warranty, representation or assumption of liability. Potter and Potter Auctions, Inc. and its consignor(s) make no warranty or representation, express or implied, that the purchaser will acquire any copyright or reproduction rights to any lot sold.

AT THE SALE

Registration Before Bidding – A prospective buyer must complete and sign a registration form and provide identification before bidding. We may require bank or other financial references. Potter and Potter Auctions, Inc., is under no obligation to approve the registration of any prospective registrant.

Bidding as Principal – When making a bid, a bidder is accepting personal liability to pay the purchase price, including the buyer's premium, all applicable taxes and all other applicable charges, unless it has been explicitly agreed upon in writing with Potter and Potter Auctions, Inc. before the commencement of the sale that the bidder is acting as agent on behalf of an identified third party acceptable to Potter and Potter Auctions, Inc., and that Potter and Potter Auctions, Inc. will only look to the principal for payment.

Absentee Bids – Potter and Potter Auctions, Inc. will use reasonable efforts to carry out written bids given to us prior to the sale for the convenience of clients who are not present at the auction in person. Bids must be placed in U.S. dollars. If we receive written bids on a particular lot for identical amounts, and these are the highest bids on the lot at the auction, it will be sold to the person whose written bid was received and accepted first. Execution of written bids is a free service undertaken subject to other commitments at the time of the sale and Potter and Potter Auctions, Inc. does not not accept liability for failing to execute a written bid or for errors and omissions in connection with such written bid(s).

Telephone Bids – If a prospective buyer makes arrangements with us prior to the commencement of the sale we will use reasonable efforts to contact said prospective buyer to enable them to participate in the bidding by telephone and we do not accept liability for failure to do so or for errors and omissions in connection with telephone bidding.

Note: the auctioneer may modify the increments at any time.

Reserves – Although the majority of the lots in the sale are offered without reserve, some lots in the sale may be subject to a reserve which is the confidential minimum price below which such lot will not be sold. The reserve will not exceed the low estimate of the lot. Reserves are agreed upon with consignors or, in the absence thereof, the absolute discretion of Potter and Potter Auctions, Inc. The auctioneer may open the bidding on any lot below the reserve by placing a bid on behalf of the seller. The auctioneer may continue to bid on behalf of the seller up to the amount of the reserve, either by placing consecutive bids or by placing bids in response to other bidders. With respect to lots that are offered without reserve, unless there are already competing bids, the auctioneer, in his or her discretion, will generally open the bidding at half of the low estimate for the lot. In the absence of a bid at that level, the auctioneer may proceed backwards at his or her discretion until a bid is recognized, and then continue up from that amount.

Auctioneer's Discretion – The auctioneer has the right at his or her absolute and sole discretion to refuse any bid, to advance the bidding in such a manner as he or she may decide, to withdraw any lot, and in the case of error or dispute, and whether during or after the sale, to determine the successful bidder, to continue the bidding, to cancel the sale or to reoffer and resell the item in dispute. If any dispute arises after the sale, our sale record is conclusive.

Successful Bid – The highest bidder acknowledged by the auctioneer will be the purchaser. In the case of a tie bid, the winning bidder will determined by the auctioneer at his or her sole discretion. In the event of a dispute between bidders, the auctioneer has final discretion to determine the successful bidder or to reoffer the lot in dispute. If any dispute arises after the sale, the Potter and Potter Auctions, Inc. sale record shall be conclusive. Title passes upon the fall of the auctioneer's hammer to the highest acknowledged bidder subject to the Conditions of Sale set forth herein, and the bidder assumes full risk and responsibility.

AFTER THE SALE

Buyer's Premium – In addition to the hammer price, the buyer agrees to pay Potter and Potter Auctions, Inc. a buyer's premium of 20%, and the applicable sales tax added to the final total.

Payment – The buyer must pay the entire amount due (including the hammer price, buyer's premium, all applicable taxes and other charges) no later than 5 p.m. on the seventh (7) business day following the sale. Payment in U.S. dollars may be made with cash; bank check or cashier's check drawn on a U.S. bank; money order; or wire transfer unless other arrangements are made with Potter and Potter Auctions, Inc. Potter aAuctions, Inc. reserves the right to hold merchandise purchased by personal check until the check has cleared the bank. The purchaser agrees to pay Potter and Potter Auctions, Inc. a handling charge of $50 for any check dishonored by the drawee. In the event buyer desires to pay by using a credit card, a convenience fee equaling 2.5% of the entire amount due shall be added to the buyer's invoice.

Shipping Terms - By Potter & Potter. Choice of packing and shipping method is strictly at the discretion of Potter and Potter Auctions. P&P generally provides in house shipping via FedEx or USPS to winning bidders.

Please allow 3-4 weeks for delivery.

Customer's obligation to inspect and report claims. Potter and Potter professionally and safely packs and ships thousands of items every year, and insurance is provided for successful purchasers. In the unlikely event that damage or loss occurs, these are subject to our insurance carrier's rules and limitations. Customers are required to report, in writing, any damage or loss within 72 hours of receipt of merchandise. The carrier's delivery record shall be conclusive as to this matter.

Correcting Shipping Address and report of non-receipt: Prior to shipping winning lots, customers must provide Potter and Potter with a current and accurate shipping address. Once an order has been shipped, any address changes or updates are subject to a $25.00 return to Sender fee, in addition to shipping charges.

In the event an item is lost during transit, it is customer's obligation to report non-receipt within 7 days of the date on which the item(s) were shipped.

Third-party shipping. Certain large, high-value, and fragile items will require the services of a professional packing and transportation company, or pick-up directly from our gallery. We suggest that you contact our Shipping Department before the sale for advice on the shipping and handling requirements that apply to the lots of interest to you.

If third-party shipping is chosen by the buyer or required by Potter & Potter, the buyer will arrange for removal of the merchandise from P&P within 15 days following the sale and must communicate and coordinate removal arrangements with P&P during regular business hours (Monday – Friday, 9am – 5pm).

Arrangements for third-party transportation are the responsibility of the buyer. We will not be responsible for the acts or omissions of carriers and packers whether recommended or not by us. Property will not be released to the shipper without the buyer's written consent and until payment has been made in full. Unless otherwise agreed, all purchases should be removed by the 15th day following the sale.

Risk of loss or damage in shipment. Any risk of loss or damage to the shipment through a third party carrier, once the item is removed from Potter and Potter, is at the risk of the buyer, and Potter & Potter is not liable for loss or damage of these items.

Ship to address. The winning bidder is responsible for providing Potter & Potter with an accurate address for the order destination as well as specific instructions for delivery.

Shipping costs. Shipping costs include charges for labor, materials, insurance, as well as actual shipper's fees. Buyer agrees to reimburse Potter & Potter the difference if actual shipper's fees exceed the invoice amount.

Storage fees. Potter & Potter will charge a storage fee of $50 per week for any orders awaiting payment and/or removal for more than 15 days following the auction date. This cost shall constitute a lien against such property, which may be removed to a public warehouse at the risk, account, and expense of the purchaser.

International shipping. Potter and Potter ships internationally. All shipments will include an itemized invoice with the actual and correct purchase totals including the buyer's premium and shipping cost. International buyers are responsible for knowing their country's laws on importing items as well as paying all customs and duties fees on purchased items.

Non-Payment - If we do not receive payment in full, in good cleared funds, within seven (7) business days following the sale, we are entitled in our absolute discretion to exercise one or more of the following measures, in addition to any additional actions available to us by law: (1) to impose a late charge of one and a half percent (1.5%) per thirty (30) days of the total purchase price, prorated to commence on the date of the sale; (2) to hold the defaulting buyer liable for the total amount due and to begin legal proceedings for its recovery together with interest, legal fees and costs to the fullest extent permitted under applicable law; (3) to rescind the sale; (4) to resell the property publicly or privately with such terms as we find appropriate; (5) to resell the property at public auction without reserve, and with the purchaser liable for any deficiency, cost, including handling charges, the expenses of both sales, our commission on both sales at our regular rate, all other charges due hereunder and incidental damages. In addition, a defaulting purchaser will be deemed to have granted us a security interest in, and we may retain as collateral security for such purchaser's obligations to us, any property in our possession owned by such purchaser. At our option, payment will not be deemed to have been made in full until we have collected funds represented by checks, or in the case of bank or cashier's checks, we have confirmed their authenticity: (6) to offset against any amount owed; (7) to not allow any bids at any upcoming auction by or on behalf of the buyer; (8)to take other action as we find necessary or appropriate.

Abandoned Property - In accordance with the Illinois Revised Uniform Unclaimed Property Act (765 ILCS 1026/15-191 et seq.), any property not collected within six months after an auction's conclusion will be considered abandoned. This applies to all property, whether associated with a settled invoice or a previously listed and unsold consignment. Potter & Potter Auctions reserves the right to treat abandoned property as it sees fit and act in its sole discretion, and may resell, discard, donate, or retain the abandoned property. To facilitate timely removal, the auction house will issue three written communications before determining a property as abandoned. A final notice will be sent once six months passes, confirming the forfeiture of ownership rights. No refunds, payments, or future credits will be issued for abandoned property

LIABILITY

Condition Reports – Potter and Potter Auctions, Inc. is not responsible for the correctness of any statement of any kind concerning any lot, whether written or oral, nor for any other errors or omissions in description or for any faults or defects in any lot. Neither the seller, ourselves, our officers, employees or agents, give any representation, warranty or guarantee or assume any liability of any kind in respect of any lot with regard to merchantability, fitness for a particular purpose, description, size, quality, completeness, condition, attribution, authenticity, rarity, importance, medium, provenance, prior ownership history, or historical relevance. Except as required by local law any warranty of any kind whatsoever is excluded by this paragraph.

Purchased Lots – If for any reason a purchased lot cannot be delivered in the same condition as at the time of sale, or should any purchased lot be stolen, mis-delivered or lost prior to delivery, Potter and Potter Auctions, Inc. shall not be liable for any amount in excess of that paid by the purchaser.

Legal Ramifications – The rights and obligations of the parties with respect to these Conditions of Sale, the conduct of the auction and any matters connected with any of the foregoing shall be governed and interpreted by the laws of the jurisdiction in Illinois. If any part of these Conditions of Sale is found by any court to be invalid, illegal or unenforceable, that part shall be discounted and the rest of the conditions shall continue to be valid to the fullest extent permitted by law.

Discretion - Any and all of the conditions may be waived or modified in the sole discretion of Potter and Potter Auctions, Inc.
