2. [AFRICAN-AMERICANA]. MEREDITH, James (b. 1933). Three Years in Mississippi. [Cincinnati, OH: Meredith Publications, 1966]. 8vo. 328 pp. Publisher's white printed wrappers (some rubbing, soiling to wrappers). Fine. PRESUMED PROOF COPY, POSSIBLY UNIQUE, SIGNED BY MEREDITH ON DEDICATION PAGE. Meredith, a prominent civil rights activist, was the first African-American student at the University of Mississippi, who was admitted after the intervention of the federal government which prevented his refusal due to race. Meredith's admission triggered the "Ole Miss Riot" in 1962 - the largest invocation of the Insurrection Act of 1807. In 1966, Meredith organized the March Against Fear, in which he was shot and wounded by a white sniper (the photo of Meredith wounded on the ground taken by Jack Thornell, won the Pulitzer Prize for Photography in 1967). After Meredith dropped out of the march due to his wounds, other civil rights leaders took his place (including Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr. and Stokely Carmichael); the march eventually grew to 15,000 people and is credited with starting the "Black Power" movement.

3. [AFRICAN-AMERICANA]. SPIVAK, John L. (1897-1981). Georgia Nigger. London: Wishart & Company, 1933. 8vo. Illustrated with photos and facsimiles related to the inhuman treatment of African-American inmates working on chain gangs in Georgia. [244] pp. Publisher's full rust cloth, spine lettered in dark brown (spine sunned and soiled, some rubbing, light soiling to boards, some occasional foxing, soiling in text). Very good. FIRST ENGLISH EDITION OF THIS NOVEL DEPICTING THE BRUTAL TREATMENT OF INMATES ON GEORGIA CHAIN GANGS. PRESENTATION COPY, INSCRIBED BY THE AUTHOR ON THE FFEP. "For Bick - Better start doing something about fascism or what "Georgia Niggers" get in the form of tortures!! make it seem like gay pleasures! Always, Jack Spivak". Spivak was a socialist and communist journalist who wrote extensively about racism, class inequality, and fascism. Although this is a novel, the illustrations are photos and facsimiles of real tortures and related documents photographed by Spivak.

6. ALDRICH, Thomas Bailey (1836-1907). The Writings of Thomas Bailey Aldrich. New York: Printed at the Riverside Press, 1897-1907. 8vos. Illustrated with photogravure frontispieces. 9 volumes plus the 10th volume, The Life of Thomas Bailey Aldrich by Ferris Greenslet. Uniformly bound in publisher's polished cream buckram backstrips over boards, printed paper labels on spines (spines toned, soiled, occasional rubbing, soiling to boards, occasional bumping to boards, some minor occasional foxing to text). Near fine. COPY #1/250 OF THE LARGE PAPER EDITION, INSCRIBED BY ALDRICH ON THE FFEP. OF VOLUME I: "For Mr. E. B. Holden Thomas Bailey Aldrich. November 1897." The recipient was Edwin Babcock Holden (1861-1906) was a well-known collector and was an early president of The Grolier Club. The Life volume is #1/500. Thomas Bailey Aldrich was a New England-based poet, novelist, Civil War correspondent and editor who counted among his wide circle of friends such notables as Harriet Beecher Stowe, Bret Harte, Whistler, Longfellow, and most significantly, Mark Twain, with whom he remained close for forty years. Aldrich's semi-autobiographical novel The Story of a Bad Boy (included here) is considered by many critics to be the first realistic depiction of childhood in American fiction, and was a direct influence on, and indeed inspired, the writing of The Adventures of Tom Sawyer, as Twain readily admitted.

23. [AMERICANA]. MCKENNEY, Thomas L. (1785-1859) and James HALL (1793-1868). History of the Indian Tribes of North America. Philadelphia: [Edward C. Biddle, 1836]; Frederick W. Greenough, 1838; Daniel Rice and James G. Clark, 1844. 3 volumes, large folio (495 x 349 mm). 108 (of 120) hand-colored lithographed plates, map sheet, 17-page lithographed subscriber's list at end of vol. III ("War Dance" heavily soiled with some stains and closed tear repairs near gutter verso, "Hunting of the Buffalo" with juvenile pencil scribbling to image, general marginal soiling, offsetting from text to plates). Vol. I lacks the following: copyright notice facing title, title-page, 3 plates ("Hayne Hudjihini", "Chippeway Squaw and Child" (including the 1-page text leaf), "Petelasharro"); Vol. II lacks the following: preliminary copyright notice, 3 plates (Asseola, Tshizunhaukau and Kanapima). Vol. III lacks the following: contents leaf, 44pp. and 6 plates (text begins on p. 45). Later light brown buckram, black calf lettering-pieces gilt (spines darkened, soiling and sunning to extremities, vol. I starting with cracking to front joint and near middle, some leaves repaired or reinforced, some dampstaining or browning, more so near the beginnings, some heavily repaired or soiled, light marginal soiling throughout). With 12 additional plates (added later from various sources); plates are loose, trimmed at margins, and with apparent tape repairs, all mounted on later linen. FIRST EDITION OF "THE GRANDEST COLOR PLATE BOOK ISSUED IN THE UNITED STATES UP TO THE TIME OF ITS PUBLICATION" (Stamped with a National Character). A first printing with the explanation ([iii]-iv) of the "War Dance of the Sauks and Foxes" (BAL state B) authored by Caleb Atwater. "After publication it was discovered that this text was erroneous and buyers were directed (in part 8) to destroy it and to substitute another version, presumably by Hall, which was issued with Part 8" (BAL). The plate of "Red Jacket" is in BAL state D. Title-pages are in BAL's state A (aside from the one missing in vol. I). "It's long and checkered publication history spanned twelve years and involved multiple lithographers (mainly Peter S. Duval and James T. Bowen) and publishers, but the final product is one of the most distinctive and important books in Americana. Almost all the plates are portraits of individual Native Americans, the majority painted from life by Charles Bird King (who also reworked the less skillful portraits of James Otto Lewis)" (Reese). BAL 6934; Bennett, p. 79; Best of the West 68; Bobins 58; Howes M-129; Stamped with a National Character 24.

24. [AMERICANA]. THOMAS, David (1770-1857). Travels Through the Western Country in the Summer of 1816... Auburn, NY: David Rumsey, 1819. 12mo. 320 pp. With Errata slip pasted onto the rear flyleaf, as issued. Lacks folding map, as is common to this title. Bound in contemporary full mottled calf, spine ruled in gilt, red gilt morocco lettering label (binding worn, scuffed, soiled, text toned, foxed, soiled, a few gutters starting). Good. FIRST EDITION OF THIS RARE ACCOUNT OF THOMAS' EXPLORATION OF THE WABASH LANDS IN THE NEW PURCHASE. "This journey was undertaken with a view to explore the Wabash lands in the New Purchase. It is a work of sterling merit. The author (a Quaker) was a practical engineer, and on the whole, the work, although very unpretentious in style, is well worthy of attention; The route of the author was down the Ohio, stopping at all the towns and places of interest on both sides of the river; the description of the journey to Vincennes, occupies the first half of the volume; page 189 to the end consists of 'Additional Notices of the Western Country.'" (Thomson 1139). An important work of early exploration of the Midwest, including early Indiana.

28. [THE AMERICAS]. [COLUMBUS, Christopher (1541-1506), subject]. STIGLIANI, Tommaso (1573-1651). Il Mondo Nuovo. Rome: Giacomo Mascardi, 1628. 32mo. Title-page with the famous woodcut map of the Western Hemisphere, including the Americas. 1011, [1, blank], [32, Tavola] pp. This copy lacks pp. 5-8, although they do not seem to have been removed (rather this copy seems to have been bound without them) - this pagination matches one of the copies at the Library of Congress (photocopies of the missing pages are laid-in). Bound in contemporary full vellum over boards, ink titles to spine (some rubbing, toning, soiling to binding, small worm-hole on front board, the first two leaves are reinforced at the versos at the fore-edges (little to no loss of text on the second leaf), some toning, foxing, occasional soiling in text). Fine. SECOND (FIRST COMPLETE) EDITION OF THIS LONG-FORM POEM ABOUT THE DISCOVERY OF AMERICA BY COLUMBUS. This long poem adds certain romantic elements, including love stories, magicians, demons, etc. in the tradition of Italian romances. Sabin 91729.

29. [THE AMERICAS]. ULLOA, Don Antonio de (1716-1795). Noticias Americanas: Entreenimientos Phisicos-Historicos, sobre La America Meridional... Madrid: Don Francisco Manuel de Mena, 1772. 8vo. 407 pp. Text in Spanish. Bound in contemporary vellum over thin boards, ink titles to spine (binding worn, soiled, front hinge broken, rear hinge just starting, occasional minor soiling or foxing in text, some soiling to edge of text block, bookseller's ticket (Luis Bardon in Madrid) on fp.) Very good. FIRST EDITION OF THIS EARLY HISTORY OF PERU AND ECUADOR. This uncommon history also has commentary on the plants, animals, minerals, and climate; this book also has information on the Indians and their histories.

30. [AMERICAN LIBRARIES]. Group of the First 28 Annual Reports for the Providence Athenaeum. Providence: Knowles and Vose and Knowles, Anthony, 1842-63. 8vos. 28 reports bound together into 1 volume. Reports are around 20-30 pages each. At front is a contemporary manuscript leaf in an unknown hand with list of the contained reports. Original front wrappers bound-in at rear. Bound by Julia Miller in modern quarter brown cloth over marbled boards, printed paper label on spine (manuscript leaf worn, chipped, occasional foxing or markings in text, some wear, ownership markings to front wrappers). Fine. FIRST EDITIONS OF ALL 28 ANNUAL REPORTS FOR THE ATHENAEUM. The Providence Athenaeum is one of the oldest and most respected libraries in Rhode Island, with numerous collections. The building is a Greek Revival building designed by William Strickland – two additions were built later. A rare collection.

39. [ART IN AMERICA]. QUINN, John (1870-1924). Memorandum Against the Imposition of Any Duty on Original Works of Art. New York: John Quinn, [n.d., ca. 1913]. 8vo. 27, [1, blank] pp. Publisher's staple-bound wrappers (some toning, rubbing to edges of wrappers, one faint vertical crease at center of wrappers and text, occasional toning, foxing to text, first few leaves of text with paperclip rust marks at top). Fine. THE SCARCE FIRST EDITION OF THIS LEGAL BRIEF WITH THE OBJECT OF REPEALING THE 1909 TARIFF LAW ON FOREIGN WORKS OF ART. With: PAGES 12 AND 13 OF A TYPED LETTER SIGNED BY QUINN, in which he discusses the Memorandum (on plain white paper in blue ink, creased, worn with tears, rust marks from paperclip). Good. Quinn was a corporate attorney in New York, but, more importantly, was a major patron of modern art, and a major book collector of British and Irish literature. He was also one of the organizers and spokesperson for the legendary 1913 Armory Show (The International Exhibition of Modern Art) in New York. It was also in 1913, where Quinn was successful in convincing the United States Congress to repeal the 1909 Tariff Law, which imposed a duty of foreign works of art less than 20 years old (thus discouraging American collectors for acquiring modern European art). His success in overturning this tariff caused a major increase in acquisitions of modern art in the United States.

65. [BRITISH PRIME MINISTERS]. [EARL OF DERBY, Edward George Geoffrey Smith-Stanley, 14th Earl of Derby, 1799-1869, his copy]. WALPOLE, Horace (1717-1797). Private Correspondence of Horace Walpole, Earl or Orford. London: Rodwell and Martin, 1820. 8vos. Frontispiece portrait in volume I. 4 volumes. Bound in contemporary full calf, boards ruled in gilt, spines tooled, ruled in gilt in compartments, five raised bands, brown and red gilt morocco lettering labels, marbled edges (all volumes rebacked preserving the original spines, boards with visible repairs with vertical seams, boards worn, soiled, later endleaves, some foxing, soiling in text). Good. FIRST COLLECTED EDITION, THE EARL OF DERBY'S COPY WITH HIS SIGNATURE ("Derby") ON THE TITLE-PAGES OF VOLUMES I AND II. His armorial bookplate on the fp. of all volumes. Derby was the Prime Minister three times, and was the longest serving leader of the Conservative Party. Perhaps his greatest achievement is shepherding the Reform Act of 1867, which enfranchised more working-class men than before, doubling the eligible voters (Disraeli claimed credit for this act).

66. [BRITISH PRIME MINISTERS]. RUSSELL, Lord John (1792-1878). Don Carlos; or, Persecution. A Tragedy in Five Acts... London: Longman, Hurst, Rees, Orme, and Brown, 1822. 8vo. 120 pp. Bound in armorial binding (the Cawdor family crest) of contemporary full brown calf, boards double-ruled in gilt, gilt central coat of arms, spine tooled in gilt in compartments, five raised bands, red gilt morocco lettering label, gilt board-edges and turn-ins, marbled edges and endleaves (some wear to joints, edges, light soiling to binding, hinges just starting, minor occasional foxing in text). Very good. FIFTH EDITION, PRESENTATION COPY, INSCRIBED BY PRIME MINISTER LORD JOHN RUSSELL TO LADY CAWDOR ON THE TITLE-PAGE. Russell served as prime minister twice, and is credited with bringing about the demise of the Whig Party. The recipient, Lady Cawdor, was a member of the prominent Whig family, the Cawdors.

67. [BRITISH PRIME MINISTERS]. EDEN, Sir Anthony (1897-1977). The Memoirs of Sir Anthony Eden / The Eden Memoirs. London: Cassell, [1960-65]. 8vos. Complete in 3 volumes. Publisher's bindings, dust jackets (unclipped, except for The Reckoning; Some rubbing to bindings; jacket toned, rubbed, with some occasional short tears, chips, bookplate The Reckoning, bookseller's ticket in Facing the Dictators). Very good or better. SECOND EDITION OF THE FIRST VOLUME (FULL CIRCLE), FIRST EDITIONS OF THE REMAINING TWO VOLUMES (FACING THE DICTATORS, THE RECKONING); INSCRIBED BY EDEN ON THE FFE. IN FULL CIRCLE: "With gratitude and in friendship from Anthony Eden April 8 of 60". Eden was Prime Minister from 1955-57, following the tenure of Sir Winston Churchill. Although a skilled diplomat, he blundered in the handling of the 1956 Suez Crisis, by misjudging the United States' opposition to military intervention in Suez. This became a huge political defeat and embarrassment for Britain, signaling the virtual end of Britain as a world power, and the emergence of the United States as a superpower.

79. [CAGNEY, James (1899-1986), his copy]. ORWELL, George (pseudonym of BLAIR, Eric Arthur, 1903-1950). Animal Farm. New York: Harcourt, Brace and Company, [1946]. Small 8vo. 118, [2, blank] pp. Publisher's full green cloth, spine lettered in gilt, publisher's unclipped (no price) dust jacket (cloth rubbed, bumped, endleaves a bit toned; jacket worn, chipped, soiled, torn). A good copy in a fair jacket. EARLY AMERICAN EDITION, JAMES CAGNEY'S COPY WITH HIS BOOKPLATE ON THE FP. (light soiling to bookplate). Cagney had a tenuous link to Orwell, via the filmmaker, Louis de Rochemont (1899-1978). Rochemont and his brother had produced the popular "March of Time" newsreels, and later produced other films, including the British animated version of Animal Farm (1954), in which he was heavily involved in the artistic direction (legend has it that he was the "front" for the CIA in the making of that anti-Soviet film). Years before his involvement in Animal Farm, Rochemont produced the spy thriller, 13 Rue Madeleine (1947, directed by Henry Hathaway), with Cagney as the leading role of Bob Sharkey, the heroic spy who sacrifices his life in order to protect the plans to the secret D-Day invasion (as an aside, J. Edgar Hoover himself had a brief cameo in this film). From the collection of magician and actor Harry Anderson.

80. [CALIFORNIANA]. California Series (the "Covered Wagon Babies" Set). Los Angeles, CA: Powell Publishing Company, [1928-29]. Large 8vos. Illustrated. Complete in 9 volumes. Bound in publisher's deluxe binding of full brown levant morocco, boards and spines stamped in gilt, green and red gilt morocco lettering labels on spines, five raised bands, gilt turn-ins, marbled endleaves, top edges gilt (bindings heavily worn, chipped, soiled, joints cracking several boards nearly detached, text very lightly toned at edges but otherwise generally clean). Fair. THE FAMOUS "COVERED WAGON BABIES" SET OF THE "CALIFORNIA SERIES," ALL VOLUMES SIGNED BY THE CHILDREN OF PIONEERS; #305/387 SUBSCRIBER'S COPIES. THIS COPY WAS ISSUED TO SYLVESTER LAFLIN WEAVER, WITH HIS BOOKPLATE ON ALL FPS. Weaver (1908-2002), known as "Pat" Weaver, was president of NBC between 1953-55, and is credited with changing the philosophy and format of commercial television, making it the dominant home entertainment medium. His daughter is the acclaimed actress, Sigourney Weaver (b. 1949). The "Covered Wagon Babies" were people who were born on wagon trains during the settlement of California in the 1840s and 1850s, and survived into the late 1920s. The volumes are as follows: Pathfinders (signed by the two surviving members of the Donner Party, Isabelle McMahon and Catherine M. Hecox Tilden Brown,) Spanish Arcadia (signed by the scion of one of the most prominent Spanish families in early California, Juan J. de la Guerra,) The Great Trek (signed by 6 surviving sons or daughters of the Great Trek, all of whom were executives of The Covered Wagon Babies' Club), Gold Days (signed by 5 surviving Gold Rush sons and 8 Covered Wagon Babies), Songs and Stories (signed by "The Sage of Jackass Hill," W. R. Gillis, one of Mark Twain's friends plus 4 Covered Wagon Babies,) Oxcart to Airplanes (signed by stage driver Sam Jobe and train engineer Charles C. Trott, and Pony Express rider William Campbell and clipper captain I. N. Hibbard), March of Industry (signed by early California industrialist George Chaffey and 7 Covered Wagon Babies), Land of Homes (signed by 8 Covered Wagon Babies), Outdoor Heritage (signed by 12 Covered Wagon Babies). An excellent association copy.

together, exotic colorful endleaves, all edges stained red; housed in custom made black cloth box with lift-off lid, fold-out opening with special holders to keep the book in place, and lined in handmade pink paper. Plates are numbered at upper right corner. Box lightly rubbed. Fine. FIRST EDITION OF THIS MAGNIFICENT PHOTOGRAPHIC RECORD OF THE 1893 COLUMBIAN EXPOSITION IN CHICAGO, IN A SPECTACULAR MODERN ART BINDING. Jackson was the official photographer of the World's Columbian Exposition of 1893. "The White City Artfolio is the most elaborate, handsome and complete work reproducing the wonders of the great Columbian Exposition that has as yet been produced, and we can safely say that it is the best that ever will be published, for the reason that the photographs were made by Mr. W. H. Jackson, who has no equal in the field of photography. With the White City no longer in existence, we are able to make the statements above given without fear of contradiction." (Dybwad 1627). Offered with a framed blue glass hatchet with George Washington's profile.

139. [CIVIL WAR]. [PAYNE, Oliver Hazard (1839-1917), his copy]. HANNAFORD, E[benezer] (1840-1905). The Story of a Regiment: A History of the Campaigns, and Associations in the Field, of The Sixth Regiment Ohio Volunteer Infantry. Cincinnati: Published by the Author, 1868. 8vo. 622, [4, blank] pp. Publisher's full dark brown cloth, boards stamped in blind, front board and spine stamped in gilt (spine restored at edges, recased, some wear, soiling to boards, some soiling to endleaves and edge of text block). Near fine. FIRST EDITION. INSCRIBED TO COLONEL O. H. PAYNE FROM A FELLOW SOLDIER, N. L. ANDERSON ON FFEP.: "Col O. H. Payne with the compliments of his friend and fellow soldier N. L. Anderson Nov/70". IN ADDITION, AN ADDITIONAL DEDICATION LEAF SIGNED BY HANNAFORD HAS BEEN TIPPED-IN TO THE EXISTING DEDICATION LEAF. Signed dedication leaf is soiled, toned. Payne was in command of the 6th Regiment Ohio Volunteer for 3 years, leading them in numerous battles, including the Battle of Chickamauga, Siege of Chattanooga, Battle of Missionary Ridge, and many more. After the war, Payne became a powerful businessman/"Robber Baron", organizing the American Tobacco Company Trust, and was one of the founders of U. S. Steel and was associated with Standard Oil. An excellent association.

140. [CIVIL WAR]. PORTER, Fitz John (1822-1901). Gen'l Fitz John Porter's Reply to Hon. Z. Chandler's Speech in the U. S. Senate, Feb. 21, 1870. Morristown, NJ: [Privately Printed], 1870. 8vo. 20 pp. Printed wrappers (wrappers toned, spine torn, some chipping to wrappers). Very good. FIRST EDITION, INSCRIBED BY PORTER ON THE FRONT WRAPPER: "Senator Bayard Compliments of F. J. Porter". During the Second Battle of Bull Run, Porter halted a hazardous attack ordered by Major General John Pope (1822-1892), which Porter (and Major General Irvin McDowell (1818-1885)) felt was too dangerous. Second Bull Run was a huge defeat for the Union, and Pope blamed Porter for it; he charged Porter with insubordination and initiated a Court Martial of Porter. Porter was found guilty in 1863, and was stripped of his command in disgrace. Porter spent the next several decades (despite performing other jobs honorably) trying to restore his good name, finally having his Court Martial dismissed in 1886 (much of his Court Martial was politically motivated). Senator Thomas F. Bayard of Delaware (1828-1898) campaigned for Porter's restoration. An excellent association.

141. [CIVIL WAR]. YOUNG, Bennett H. (1843-1919). History of the Battle of Blue Licks. Louisville: John P. Morton and Company, 1897. 8vo. Illustrated with frontispiece portrait and 3 plates. 101, [3, blank] pp. Publisher's staple-bound wrappers (front wrapper detached and chipped, worn and soiled, frontispiece detached, chipped and dampstained, spine partially perished, rear wrapper missing, plates and conjugate pages dampstained, a few pages with marginal tears). Fair. THE RARE FIRST EDITION; A PRESENTATION COPY, INSCRIBED BY BENNETT ON THE TITLE-PAGE: "To the Misses Ward with the assurances of high regard and sincere esteem Bennett H. Young July 11 1898". Young was a Confederate officer who led forces in the St. Albans Raid, in which Young's forces robbed banks in St. Albans, VT, in order to enhance the finances of the Confederate Treasury. After the raid, Young's forces fled into Canada, where Canadian forces arrested them. Abraham Lincoln wanted these men extradited for prosecution, but neutral Canada denied this. At the end of the war, Young was denied amnesty by President Johnson; Young spent the next few years in Ireland and Scotland, where he studied law. He was able to return to the U. S. in 1868, where he established the first orphanage for African-American children and a school for the blind in Louisville, KY. He wrote several histories, including this one. Young was awarded the CSA Medal of Honor for the St. Albans Raid. His autograph is quite rare.

149. [COLOR-PLATE BOOKS]. [COSTUME]. MEYRICK, Samuel R. (1783-1848) and SMITH, Charles Hamilton (1776-1859). The Costume of the Original Inhabitants of the British Islands. From the Earliest Periods to the Sixth Century to Which is Added that of the Gothic Nations on the Western Coasts of the Baltic, the Ancestors of the Anglo-Saxons and Anglo-Danes. London: Printed by William Bulmer & Co., Shakespeare Press..., 1815. Folio. Illustrated with 23 hand-colored aquatint engraved plates (including the engraved title-page); this copy with 2 original watercolors (perhaps the originals done for the book) replacing plates 3 and 5. 59 pp. Pages and plates watermarked "Whatman 1811". Bound to style in modern quarter brown calf over marbled boards, spine tooled in gilt in compartments, red and green gilt morocco lettering labels, new endleaves (spine a bit sunned, some toning, occasional soiling and foxing in text and plates, one paper guard has a short tear). Fine. FIRST EDITION. This was one of a number of books that had been inspired by William Stukeley's work on Stonehenge, which brought Druids and ancient Britons to the forefront of the romantic imagination. The pictures of ancient Britons show a mixture of influences. In part they resemble the images of Native Americans that appeared in early travel literature, but the figures are in poses like those of the classical gods that travelers saw in Greek and Roman sculptures while on the Grand Tour. In addition, they are shown wearing the ornaments and weapons that antiquaries were discovering and publishing in the Society of Antiquaries' journal Archaeologia and elsewhere. Bronze swords and rapiers, as well as torcs, socketed axes, gold lunulae and brooches all appear in these imagined recreations of life in ancient Britain. The speculation about the clothing of the early Britons and how they used the various objects is typical of these works. Smith's fanciful images include A Briton of the Interior standing before an earthwork fort, tattooed Maeatae and Caledonians from North Briton in front of a cromlech, and various Druid priests and bards. His speculations were based on earlier research by Meyrick. Abbey 427.

171. DICKENS, Charles (1812-1870). A Tale of Two Cities (in All The Year Round – A Weekly Journal). London: All The Year Round and Messrs. Chapman and Hall, 1859. 8vo. Bound in volume I, April 30 – October 22, 1859, and a portion of volume II, October 29 – November 26, 1859 (the uniform title-page calls for October 29, 1859 to April 7, 1860). Bound in one volume. Bound with the Extra Christmas Number for 1859 at the end. Text of A Tale of Two Cities is complete, but the text of The Woman in White (by Wilkie Collins, the other major novel in this collection) is not complete. Both volumes have uniform title-pages and Contents pages. Bound to style in modern half red morocco over marbled boards, spine tooled and lettered in gilt in compartments, five raised bands, plain endleaves (occasional thumbsoiling, creasing in text). Fine. THE TRUE FIRST APPEARANCE IN PRINT OF A TALE OF TWO CITIES.

172. DICKINSON, Emily (1830-1886). Poems by Emily Dickinson [First Series]. Edited by two of her Friends Mabel Loomis Todd and T. W. Higginson. Boston: Roberts Brothers, 1891. 8vo. [xiv], [11, sic], -152 pp. Publisher's variant binding of cream cloth backstrip over gray cloth boards, front board stamped in silver, spine stamped in gilt (front board soiled in a "bar" pattern, spine toned and soiled, rear board soiled, some edgewear, corners bumped; it is difficult to tell, but this copy may have been recased). Good. STATED THIRD EDITION, ACTUALLY THE FIRST EDITION, THIRD PRINTING OF THE FIRST SERIES. First state of this binding with the publisher's imprint on the spine. The first of three books of her poetry, all of which were published posthumously. Rare.

173. DIDEROT, Denis (1713-1784) and D'ALEMBERT, Jean-Baptiste (1717-1783). Encyclopedie, ou Dictionnaire Raisonne des Sciences, des Arts et des Metiers... [Elmsford, NY: Pergamon Press, ca. 1969]. Folios. Illustrated. Complete in 5 volumes. Bound in publisher's full burgundy cloth, front board and spine stamped in gilt (some rubbing, light soiling). Fine. READEX COMPACT EDITION – FACSIMILE EDITION OF THE 1702 EDITION (each page has 4 pages of the original edition – so all 17 volumes are reproduced in 5 as issued). Most of the nearly 71,000 entries were written by Diderot and D'Alembert, but other contributors included Rousseau, Voltaire, Montesquieu, and others.

174. DRINKWATER, John (1882-1937). Bird in Hand. A Play in Three Acts. London: Sidgwick & Jackson, Ltd., 1927. 8vo. 96 pp. Bound by hand in contemporary paper backstrip over floral boards, ink manuscript label on front board (toned, sunned, soiled, some wear, pages are various 8vo sizes, toned, occasional creases, wear, a few publisher inkstamps). Very good. CORRECTED PROOFS, WITH SLIP SIGNED BY DRINKWATER AFFIXED TO TITLE-PAGE, AND WITH HIS PENCIL CORRECTIONS AND NOTES THROUGHOUT. A unique book.

175. [DUNNINGER, Joseph (1892-1975), his copy]. GODWYN, Thomas (1587-1642). Moses and Aaron. Civil and Ecclesiastical Rites, Used by the ancient Hebrewes... London: E. G..., 1641. Small 4to. Illustrated with woodblock headpieces. [viii], 1-264, [10, tables]. Bound in later full blue cloth (binding worn, sunned, soiled, gutter facing title-page starting, some toning, wear to text, a few pencil notations throughout). Good. SIXTH EDITION, WITH DUNNINGER'S BOOKPLATE DESIGNED BY MAHLON BLAINE ON THE FP. Dunninger was one of the most famous and successful mentalists of all time, and debunked fraudulent mediums. An interesting association.

176. [DURYÉE, Abram (1815-1890), his copy]. PORTER, Charles T. Review of The Mexican War, Embracing the Causes of the War, the Responsibility of Its Commencement... Auburn, NY: Alden & Parsons, 1849. 8vo. 220, [2, blank] pp. Publisher's full bluish-green cloth, boards decoratively stamped in blind, spine decoratively stamped in blind and lettered in gilt (spine a bit sunned, some edgewear, soiling to spine and boards, endleaves and text foxed, skewed). Good. FIRST EDITION, CIVIL WAR BRIGADIER GENERAL ABRAM DURYÉE'S COPY WITH HIS SIGNATURE ON THE FP. Presentation bookplate from The Seventh Regiment Military Library to General Duryée, dated December 1881 on the fp. next to Duryée's signature. An excellent association. Duryée was a Union Brigadier General during the Civil War, commander of one of the most famous "Zouave" regiments, the 5th New York Volunteer Infantry. He fought in Big Bethel, Battle of Cedar Mountain, Second Battle of Bull Run, and Antietam (he had been wounded several times). After the war, he became the New York City Police Commissioner (his tenure there was controversial, as he led the brutal suppression of labor protestors in Tompkins Square Park in 1874).

177. [EARLY PRINTING]. [JACOBUS DE TERAMO PALLADINUS (1349-1417)]. Leaf from "Consolatio Peccatorum, seu Processus Luciferi Contra Jesum Christum..." with a Woodcut of the Demon Belial and a Bishop. [Germany, ca. 1473]. Printed leaf with red manuscript initials, otherwise uncolored. Size approximately 12 x 8 1/2". Mounted on mat and framed under plexiglass. Frame size approximately 17 3/4 x 13 3/4". Some visible soiling, edgewear, wrinkling to leaf. Very good. LEAF FROM A LATER EDITION OF THIS TITLE. This curious title is a tract describing two lawsuits brought against Jesus Christ by Lucifer (prosecuted by the demon Belial) because Christ trespassed in Hell (during his "Harrowing in Hell.") Not examined out of frame.

181. [EROTICA]. "FLORENCE H..." Flossie in Bondage. Paris: Privately Printed, [ca. 1930s]. 8vo. Illustrated with a pornographic cartoon plate affixed on fp., under (later?) plastic, affixed in place by black cloth tape. 188 pp. Publisher's full blue cloth, front board and spine stamped in black (binding quite worn, sunned, fp. apparently missing and replaced with the pornographic cartoon, several gutters cracking, some occasional thumbsoiling, creasing in text). Very good. PRESUMED FIRST EDITION, #173/250. It is unclear if the illustration was issued with this edition, or was added later. It seems that this book has been reprinted (despite what is stated on the limitation page) without the first two chapters, which are still present in this volume (later editions also have hardcore pornographic plates, which are not present here). Rare.

182. [EUROPEAN HISTORY]. CASTEL DE SAINT-PIERRE, Charles Irénéé (Abbé de Saint-Pierre, 1658-1743). A Project for Settling an Everlasting Peace in Europe. First Proposed by Henry IV. Of France, and approved by Queen Elizabeth, and most of the then Princes of Europe, and now discussed at large, and made practicable. London: Printed for J. W., 1714. Small 8vo. Engraved vignette of Europe and Northern Africa on title-page. [178] pp. Bound in contemporary half brown calf over marbled boards, rebacked in modern brown morocco (boards worn, scuffed, ownership signatures on front and rear endleaves, occasional pencil markings in text, some toning in text, several pages trimmed a bit close at upper and lower margins (no apparent loss of text). Very good. FIRST ENGLISH TRANSLATION OF SAINT-PIERRE'S PROPOSAL OF UNIVERSAL PEACE. This proposal is generally seen as a precursor to the League of Nations, the United Nations, and the European Union. This work was an important influence on Rousseau and Kant. A fundamental text in the study of modern attitudes towards war. The existence of such translations of Saint-Pierre's work is significant: the scheme depended on wide adoption by the sovereigns of Europe, and the present translation suggests that some in England were prepared to take the Abbé's suggestions seriously. Saint-Pierre himself was evidently aware of this translation, as acknowledged in a letter from him appended to the end of the work, dated April 14, 1714. The translator, however, remains unidentified. The Abbé proposed the creation of a central pan-European Union which would eventually be extended first to the Muslim nations, and then to Asia. In addition to presenting 15 distinct advantages of a "European Society," he considers in his treatise over 60 moral, political, and practical objections to his proposal, including the objection that "princes do not read"; The project was widely criticized as utopian. Yet Immanuel Kant revived essentially the same proposal in 1795, in a more sardonic and ambiguous tone, and with considerably less detail, and it is he rather than the Abbé who often receives credit for having envisioned the modern United Nations. The Abbé's proposal was also revived by Rousseau, who issued his own critical abridgment of the Project with commentary in 1761.

184. [FASHION]. MCKENNA, Joe. Joe's Magazine. Second Issue. [New York: Joe McKenna, 1998]. Folio. Original wrappers. Some minor wear, a few short marginal tears, spine creased at center. Near fine. FIRST EDITION OF THIS SCARCE AND SOUGHT-AFTER SECOND ISSUE. Only 2 issues were published – the first was published in 1992, this second issue in 1998. This was an influential fashion and photography magazine. Contributors include Bruce Weber, Mario Sorrenti, and more. "The first issue of Joe's, the brainchild of the stylist Joe McKenna, was published in 1992, and the second in 1998. They have stood the test of time because, unlike the barrage of new magazines that have followed, Joe's paid little attention to celebrities, and even less to advertiser demands..." 256. [FRANKLIN, Benjamin (1706-1790), attributed to]. [ALMON, John (1737-1805)]. The Political Register, and Impartial Review of New Books for MDCCLXVIII. Volume the Third. London: H. Beevor, 1768. 8vo. Illustrated with 5 engraved plates, including 1 folding (one of the plates "The Colonies Reduced/Its Companion" is supposed to have been conceived and designed by Franklin). 390 pp. Near contemporary quarter calf over marbled boards, black gilt morocco lettering label and gilt number on spine (binding worn, lightly soiled, some wear, toning, soiling to text which is uncut). Very good. FIRST EDITION OF THIS VOLUME, WITH THE PLATE ATTRIBUTED TO BEN FRANKLIN. According to Franklin's son, William, his father had designed this plate with 2 panels to show what would happen if the British government continued their oppressive measures against their American colonies. This was proven to be prophetic some years later, at the outbreak of the Revolutionary War. This volume also has other pre-Revolutionary War articles - about the suppression of the authority of the New York legislature, the repeal of the Stamp Act, and more.

307. HUXLEY, Aldous (1894-1963). Island. London: Chatto & Windus, 1962. 8vo. 286, [2, blank] pp. Publisher's full red cloth, spine stamped in gilt and white (binding worn, soiled, ink mark on front board, endleaves foxed, occasional foxing, creasing in text). Fair. FIRST EDITION OF HUXLEY'S FINAL BOOK BEFORE HIS DEATH; PRESENTATION COPY, INSCRIBED BY HUXLEY TO HIS FRIEND, THE CONTROVERSIAL EDUCATOR MARGARET CORBETT: "For Margaret Corbett from her old friend Aldous Huxley 1962". Inscription is sloppy and traced over, presumably by Huxley, whose health had been poor for years. Corbett (1889-1962) was a proponent and teacher of the controversial (and now discredited) method of teaching eyesight improvement, The Bates Method (originated by her husband's ophthalmologist, Dr. William Bates). This method emphasized mental drills to improve vision. She was prosecuted in 1940 for practicing medicine without a license, but was acquitted, as she never claimed medical training – she merely taught. Huxley was one of her pupils, and she so inspired him that he wrote The Art of Seeing (1942).

315. [KING CHARLES I (1600-1649), subject]. Eikon Basilike. The Pourtraiture of His Sacred Majesty King Charles I. In His Solitudes and Sufferings. [Bound with:] The Royal Martyr: or, the Life and Death of King Charles I. London: D. Browne, et al., 1727. 8vo. With large folding engraved plate of King Charles. [viii], [1]-224; [236] pp. Bound in contemporary full paneled calf, rebounded to style in later brown morocco, spine tooled in gilt and blind, brown gilt morocco lettering label, five raised bands (binding worn, joints cracking, hinges cracking, text toned with occasional soiling, foxing, plate with edgewear, tears). Good. LATER EDITION WITH THE UNCOMMON FOLDING PLATE. The first part with "Prayers Used by His Majesty..." present at rear. This famous Royalist publication was supposedly the autobiography of Charles I (who had just been executed) but was most likely written by John Gauden. It was so controversial that Parliament commissioned a response written by no less than John Milton (1608-1674, his book Eikonoklastes), and Milton was also the first to doubt that Charles I was the author of Eikon Basilike.

331. [LOGAN, Joshua (1908-1988), association]. HAMMERSTEIN II, Oscar (1895-1960). Lyrics. New York: Simon and Schuster, 1949. 8vo. 215, [1, blank] pp. Publisher's full burgundy cloth, front board and spine stamped in gray, publisher's price-clipped dust jacket (endleaves toned, offset, some foxing to endleaves and edges of text block, small area of tape residue on ffep.; jacket toned, worn, soiled, chipped, tape residue on jacket verso). A near fine copy in a fair jacket. FIRST EDITION, WITH A 4-PAGE LATER (1968) INSCRIPTION FROM ONE OF HAMMERSTEIN'S COLLABORATORS, JOSHUA LOGAN, TO COMMEMORATE LOGAN'S SON'S GRADUATION FROM COLLEGE. Inscription is on both sides of the ffep. and the first blank. Some excerpts from the inscription: "Here is a book that is now out of print and yet a few years ago I was partly responsible for or at least part of it: When Oscar H & I were writing the libretto of South Pacific I introduced Oscar to the Dictaphone an electrical affair which recorded the spoken word on a plastic belt...When I first suggested bring a dictaphone & a secretary with a [?] machine down to Doylestown, Pa where we were to work together on his "book" of South Pacific, he demurred. He said "You're asking me to drive an airplane. I think we should at least start with a horse & buggy." I said "We haven't got time for a horse & buggy. South Pacific goes into rehearsal in a month & you have only finished the first scene & a sketch of the second & we need a whole play - and we need it yesterday." The inscription goes on to relate more of the creation of South Pacific, and his friendship with Hammerstein. Logan was a legendary theater producer, director, and writer, and also directed several films. A superb association.

Fine. FIRST EDITION OF TENON'S SCIENTIFIC STUDY OF EUROPEAN HOSPITALS. Tenon traveled for 18 months in France, England and Germany, after which he prepared and published his report, which revealed the appalling conditions prevailing in Parisian hospitals. This was particularly true of the Hotel-Dieu. With great foresight, he proposed a series of reforms. He believed particularly that "there must be rooms in which to prepare for operations, for the operations themselves, and for those who have undergone operations; these rooms must be removed from noise and from infection..." Tenon's work had a prodigious effect and profoundly influenced the King and the public. His proposed reforms were upset by the French Revolution, but nevertheless served during the 19th century as the conceptual guide for the majority of European hospitals.

355. [NEWSPAPERS]. [FRANKLIN, Ben (1706-1790), printer]. Pair of Newspapers; One Colonial Paper Printed by Ben Franklin, the Other a Post-Revolutionary War Paper with an Ad from George Washington's Brother. Including: The Pennsylvania Gazette. August 20, 1761. Numb. 1704. Philadelphia: Printed by B. Franklin, Post-Master, and D. Hall at the New Printing-Office, near the Market. 4 folio pages on one large folio folded sheet. Each page 15 3/4 x 10". One horizontal crease at center, one vertical crease on each page; first page completely torn at this crease, heavily worn, soiled, numerous tears. Top margin trimmed a bit close. Fair. With notices for lost horses, goods for sale, and slave sales. And: The Pennsylvania Packet, and Daily Advertiser. Saturday, February 12, 1785. No. 1879. Philadelphia: Printed and sold by John Dunlap and David C. Claypoole. 4 folio pages on one large folded folio sheet. Each page 18 1/2 x 11 1/2". Each page with one horizontal and one vertical crease, toned, soiled, numerous marginal tears, chips. Fair. 356. [NEWSPAPERS]. "Dewey Defeats Truman" 20 Copies of This Infamous Newspaper. Chicago: Chicago Daily Tribune, November 3, 1948. Folded issues of this erroneous newspaper. Mastheads partially cut out (with a razor or similar implement, several pages behind the first page are likewise cut), but the headlines are intact; newspapers are toned, soiled, creased, some with discolor possibly due to mildew. Fair. This early edition newspaper falsely proclaimed Governor Thomas Dewey as the president-elect in 1948. The Tribune had leaned Republican for some time and had showed disdain for Truman and the Democrats for years. They eagerly published this newspaper, based on the prediction of their Washington, D. C. political analyst, Arthur Sears Henning, who had previously correctly predicted the last 4 out of 5 presidential elections. Unfortunately, Henning famously goofed on this election. Two days after this issue was published, Truman got an issue of this paper while on a whistle-stop tour of St. Louis on his train, and held this newspaper aloft, being photographed doing so. This photograph became one of the most famous American political photographs of the 20th century.

the account of the cruise of the USS Bear in 1897-98 to Cape Vancouver, West Alaska, landing a party under the command of Lt. David H. Jarvis to go overland to Point Barrow, the northernmost point of Alaska, to rescue four whaling crews stranded in a sudden early Arctic freeze. The Jarvis party ultimately sledged to Seward Peninsula, purchased several hundred reindeer, then herded the reindeer across Kotzebue Sound, by the Kivalina and Meade Rivers to Point Barrow to feed and rescue the whalers - covering roughly 1500 miles and enduring temperatures as low as -45 degrees Fahrenheit during the Alaskan winter. The work includes texts of orders and letters, descriptions of traveling conditions and regions traversed, the Inuit peoples encountered, the purchase, care and dispensing of relief, including the reindeer. The three-man expedition consisted of Lt. D. H. Jarvis, 2nd Lt. E.P. Bertholf and Surgeon S.J. Call - all of whom received Congressional Gold Medals in 1902 for their heroic efforts. Lt. Bertholf later went on to become the first commandant of the United States Coast Guard. Arctic Bibliography 18402. Ricks, p. 241. Wickersham 7604. 150/300

389. [POLAR EXPLORATION]. SHIRASE, Nobu (1861-1946). Tanken Monogatari: Nankyoku to Hokkyoku [Exploration to the North Pole and South Pole]. Tokyo: Shunkichi Endo, Echigoya Shobo, First Edition, First Printing, 15 January 1944. Small 8vo. (4), 190 text, [1], 3. Color title page using blue and red ink with illustration, one full-page with 2 black-and-white photographs, one full-page with two maps illustrating north polar and south polar regions, 10 full-page drawing illustrations, 15 drawing illustrations in text. Prior owner's initials on rear end leaf and in kanji on second blank rear flyleaf. Text in Japanese. A complete copy in Near Fine condition. Scarce. Ross 2.5.1 Publisher's pictorial stiff wrappers. Front cover and spine with lettering in black and color images. Water-color image on front cover of the "Kainan Maru" in ice-filled waters. One of three books written by Nobu Shirase, and this written two years before his death in 1946. This book was written for a juvenile audience and presents an overview of exploration encompassing both the north polar and south polar regions. Shirase was one of the few explorers during the heroic era of exploration to have ventured both into both north and south polar regions. He explored the Alaskan Arctic for one year during the Chishima - Kuril Island Expedition in late 1800's and into the Antarctic regions during the Japanese Antarctic Expedition 1910-12. From the personal collection of Shirase's bibliographer, Chet Ross. 300/500

391. [POLITICAL VIOLENCE]. [PERCIVAL, Spencer (1762-1812), association]. GIBBORNE, Rev. Thomas (1758-1846). Sermons... London: A. Strahan for T. Cadell, 1802. 8vo. 453, [1, blank], [1, ads], [1, blank] pp. Bound in contemporary full green straight-grain morocco, boards ruled in gilt, spine ruled and lettered in gilt in compartments, five raised bands, gilt board edges, gilt turn-ins, all edges gilt (binding worn, scuffed, spine toned, text a bit toned with occasional minor thumbsoiling). Very good. FIRST EDITION, PRESENTATION COPY, INSCRIBED "FROM THE AUTHOR" ON THE HALF-TITLE; ABOVE THIS INSCRIPTION IS THE OWNERSHIP SIGNATURE OF BRITISH PRIME MINISTER SPENCER PERCIVAL - THE ONLY PRIME MINISTER TO BE ASSASSINATED WHILE IN OFFICE. Percival was Prime Minister from 1809-1812 and was the only Solicitor-General to become Prime Minister. Percival was assassinated by John Bellingham, a merchant who had been imprisoned in Russia, and believed he deserved compensation from the British government - his petitions had been rejected, and so he turned to murder. Gisborne was a prominent figure in the Clapham Sect, a popular evangelist group that strongly opposed the slave trade. Percival was also an abolitionist, and it is easy to see why Gisborne gave him this book. As one would expect, items signed by Percival are quite rare. 300/500

Fine. THE RARE FIRST EDITION WITH THE UNCOMMON ALDEN AND BEARDSLEY IMPRINT. This book, written under a pseudonym (not known until recently), is a satiric diatribe against feminism and spiritualism, using elements of fantasy and science fiction. This book is dedicated to "T. P. Munrab", an anagram for P. T. Barnum, a well-known master of hoaxes and frauds, whose work "Folio." has credited with inspiring the fraudulent pursuits of feminism and spiritualism. This book is a somewhat veiled attack on the Fox Sisters, famous spiritualists of their day. From the final page: "SPIRITUALISM and WOMAN'S RIGHTS! Twins in their birth and ill begot; Twins in their grave – there let 'em rot." Housed in modern green cloth clamshell case.

422. [SCIENCE]. EHRMANN, Friedrich Ludwig (1741-1800) and LAVOISIER, Antoine Laurent (1743-1794). Essai d'un Art de Fusion, a l'Aide de l'Air du Feu... Suivi des Memoires de Mr. Lavoisier... Strasbourg: Jean George Treuttel and Paris: Cuchet, 1787. 8vo. Illustrated with 3 folding engraved plates. 366, [2, ads] pp. Bound in contemporary full mottled calf, spine tooled in gilt in compartments, five raised bands, burgundy gilt morocco lettering label, marbled endleaves, all edges red (some wear to binding, hinges just starting, one plate with additional creases from poor folding, some minor toning to text). Fine. FIRST EDITION IN FRENCH OF EHRMANN'S WORK, AND THE FIRST EDITION OF LAVOISIER'S MEMOIRS. "Friedrich Ludwig Ehrmann, professor of physics at Strasbourg, was one of Lavoisier's correspondents and one of the earliest converts to his new chemical theories. A series of experiments on which Ehrmann's work... is based were conducted at the same time as Lavoisier was working on the effects of high temperatures on various substances. The results that both obtained... were so similar that Lavoisier, who must have seen Ehrmann's manuscript before its publication, requested that his own memoirs on the subject be printed together with Ehrmann's essay..."

424. SENDAK, Maurice (1928-2012). Two Inscribed Books, including: We're All in the Dumps with Jack and Guy. [New York: Harper Collins, 1993]. Oblong 4to. Unpaginated. Publisher's brown boards, spine lettered in dark brown, publisher's unclipped ("$20.00") dust jacket (spine of book and jacket lightly bumped at headcap). Fine. And: JARRELL, Randall. Fly by Night. New York: Farrar, Straus & Giroux, [1976]. 8vo. Illustrated. Publisher's binding, unclipped dust jacket. Fine. FIRST TRADE EDITIONS, PRESENTATION COPIES FROM SENDAK TO JUDY TAYLOR HOUGH, HIS FRIEND AND BRITISH EDITOR. Sendak and Taylor Hough met in 1961, and became fast friends. She tirelessly championed the European publication of Where the Wild Things Are (and, later, his other titles), and shepherded it through the publication process at The Bodley Head. She even saved his life at one point: in 1967, Sendak was with her on a promotional tour for Where the Wild Things Are in the U.K.; after the day's promotions, he knocked on her hotel door at 2 am, and collapsed in front of her. The hotel doctor said he had indigestion, but Taylor Hough disagreed and called for an ambulance; it was a good thing she did, because it was discovered that Sendak had had a major heart attack. He then received the care he needed. A superb association.

441. [THEATER]. GROSS, Samuel Eberly (1843-1913). In The Circuit Court of the United States, Northern District of Illinois... Samuel Eberly Gross Vs. A. M. Palmer, Richard Mansfield and Richard Mansfield Company. Master's Report and Decree. [Chicago: Bernard & Miller, 1902]. 8vo. 68, [12, blank] pp. Original printed wrappers bound-in contemporary half brown morocco over marbled boards, spine lettered in gilt (binding worn, joints and hinges cracking, fep. loose, rear binder's blank and rfep dampstained, related newspaper clippings affixed to rear blanks). Fair. FIRST EDITION OF THIS LEGAL DECREE, INSCRIBED BY SAMUEL GROSS ON THE FRONT WRAPPER: "To Hon. Samuel W. Pennypacker with the compliments of Samuel E. Gross Nov. 22, 1910." In December of 1897, Edmond Rostand's (1868-1918) legendary play, Cyrano de Bergerac, debuted in the United States to universal acclaim. However, in Chicago, Samuel E. Gross, a successful real estate developer asserted that his play, The Merchant Prince of Cornville, was the plagiarized basis of Cyrano de Bergerac. Gross claimed he submitted his play to the Parisian theater where Rostand was working, but it had been rejected. Since Rostand had supposedly been at the theater at the time Gross' play was submitted, Gross surmised that Rostand had plagiarized his work. Although this claim was ludicrous, Gross successfully took legal action and was able to ban the performance of Cyrano de Bergerac in the United States for nearly 10 years. Gross was awarded a token $1 in damages (legal fees nearly bankrupted Gross). In 1920, a federal judge ruled against Gross' widow and declared that Cyrano de Bergerac was entirely invented and written by Rostand, thus resuming performances in the United States. This book is a souvenir from Gross' strange quest for "justice." The recipient of this inscription had been the governor of Pennsylvania from 1903-1907.

Very good. SPECIAL KANSAS CITY EDITION, INSCRIBED BY TRUMAN TO A FRIEND ON THE HALF-TITLE OF VOLUME 1: "With kindest regards to Harry Portman from Harry Truman 3/24/56." Portman (1896-1991) was a friend of Truman (and a fellow Kansas City resident), who served under Truman in the Argonne during WWI. After the war, Portman managed theatre chains in Europe (before the war, he managed vaudeville stages in the U. S., becoming friends with Louis B. Mayer and Irving Thalberg). When antisemitism (Portman was Jewish) arose in Europe before WWII, Portman returned to the United States, founding a veterinarian pharmaceutical company, later becoming a prominent philanthropist (the Portman Charitable Trust still dispenses gifts today). As an aside, his brother, Benny, was a famous gangster in Kansas City, whose gangland murder is still unsolved. An excellent association.

Illustrated with 234 illustrations. 651, [1, ads] pp. Bound with only 1 page of ads, out of 4 called-for. Bound in style in modern full brown levant morocco, boards ruled in blind, spine ruled in blind, two black gilt morocco lettering labels, five raised bands, marbled endleaves (text and edge of text block occasionally soiled). Very good. FIRST EDITION, BAL'S FIRST ISSUE. "This famous Mark Twain novel, "The Innocents Abroad", was an important novel in the history of subscription only books. This book was huge – comparatively speaking – to the size of other books. When first printed, it resembled the size of a desk dictionary and gave the buyer a sense of more for your money because of its girth. It is considered Twain's first real success and is described as a travel (or anti-travel, perhaps) book and is one of the best-selling travel books of all time..." (Melton). BAL 3316. 300/500

468. [VESPUCCI, Amerigo (1454-1512), subject]. BANDINI, Angelo Maria (1726-1803). Vita e Lettere di Amerigo Vespucci Gentiluomo Fiorentino. Florence: [At the Sign of Apollo], 1745. 4to. Illustrated with a full-page woodcut portrait of Vespucci, and a large folding woodcut genealogical chart. Lxxvi, [129], [1, blank] pp. Bound to style in modern half brown calf over boards, spine tooled and lettered in gilt in compartments, four raised bands, new endleaves (front joint split so that the spine is partially loose but the board is solid, frontispiece restored at fore-edge, contemporary owner's signature on frontispiece, some occasional soiling, wrinkling in text). Very good. THE RARE FIRST EDITION OF THE FIRST MONOGRAPH ON AMERIGO VESPUCCI. The first 76 pages give an account of his life and voyages, followed by his own account of his 4 voyages to America, and 3 letters to Lorenzo de Medici describing his voyages. This volume prints for the first time the third letter to de Medici. The letters are considered by many historians to be more important than the actual voyages. Vespucci states for the first time in these letters that the Americas are a new continent, not islands near China. Although the authorship of the letters is disputed – whether they were written by Vespucci himself, or by one of his companions on the voyages – the fact remains that these are critically important to the understanding of the New World (of course, the “Americas” are named in his honor).

Publisher's bindings, unclipped dust jackets (some rubbing, wear, Rockefeller book worn with a torn jacket – this book is not signed, but a typed letter signed by Rockefeller is laid-in). Generally near fine or better, except for the Rockefeller title, which is very good. FIRST EDITIONS, EXCEPT AS NOTED, ALL SIGNED BY VICE PRESIDENTS, EXCEPT AS NOTED. Titles include: The Future of Federalism by Nelson Rockefeller (second printing, unsigned, but a typed letter signed by Rockefeller of New York Governor stationery, September 5, 1962 (10 1/2 x 7 1/4" folded) is laid-in, presenting this book to a constituent), The American Family by Dan Quayle, Exceptional by Dick and Liz Cheney (signed by both Cheneys on an RNC bookplate, second printing), The Future by Al Gore, The Good Fight by Walter F. Mondale.

Very good. FIRST EDITION OF THIS WRENCHING NOVEL ABOUT A CONCENTRATION CAMP SURVIVOR LIVING IN EAST HARLEM. Wallant wrote extensively about the struggles of American Jews; after his death in 1962, the University of Hartford established a literary award in his name for writers who wrote about American Jews (some recipients include Chaim Potok, Cynthia Ozick, Leo E. Litwack). This novel is the basis of the award-winning Sidney Lumet film (1964) starring Rod Steiger.

479. [WELLESLEY, Arthur, Duke of Wellington (1769-1852), association]. MORELLIUS, Andreas. Specimen Universae Rei Nummariae Antiquae. [Bound with]: Ezechielis Spanhemii ad Eximium Virum. Leipzig: J. Thoman Fritsch, 1695. Small 8vos. First title illustrated with title vignette, pictorial headpieces, decorative initials, and 26 plates depicting coins. 2 volumes bound in one. [viii], 262, [2, blank]; 344, [40], [1, Errata], [1, blank] pp. 7 x 4 1/4". Full contemporary full vellum, ink titles to spine (front joint cracking, binding worn, soiled, some wear, chipping to text, text toned, foxed). Good. FIRST EDITION, INSCRIBED BY THE PRIME MINISTER, THE DUKE OF WELLINGTON ON THE VERSO OF THE FFEP: "MARY.- BELIEVE ME YOURS WELLINGTON MARCH 2, 1827." This was most likely inscribed by Wellington to his long time friend, Mary Stanley, the Countess of Derby, also known as Mary Gascoyne Cecil, the Marchioness of Salisbury. He had a long relationship with her and in fact an entire book was written about her relationship with Wellington and their letters. Interesting to note is the additional signature of "J. Locke" on the title page dated 1699. After careful research, this signature is almost certainly the signature of the philosopher John Locke (1632-1704) as the signature matches his exactly from this period though scholarly opinion on the signature is mixed. This book is not one of those listed in Harrison and Laslett's book "The Library of John Locke" most probably because the book departed Locke's library during Locke's lifetime and was not a part of the library collection when Harrison and Laslett created their book and census.

Publisher's light gray cloth, front board and spine lettered in green, publisher's unclipped ("$2.00") dust jacket (cloth rubbed, soiled, some soiling to endleaves and edges of text block; jacket worn, soiled, chipped, torn). Good. FIRST EDITION IN THE UNCOMMON JACKET. And: Another copy. London: Neville Spearman, [1954]. 8vo. Publisher's full textured red boards, spine lettered in white, publisher's unclipped ("9s. 6d. net") dust jacket (some rubbing to binding, some offsetting to endleaves; jacket toned, soiled, with some light edgewear). Very good. FIRST ENGLISH EDITION. This satirical novel is a modernized version of Candide, with the title character and his loved ones suffering terrible injuries, yet he stubbornly remains optimistic. Even in death, his name is used for exploitation.

486. [WESTERN AMERICANA]. HORN, Tom (1860-1903). Life of Tom Horn Government Scout and Interpreter Written by Himself. Together with His Letters and Statements by His Friends. A Vindication. Denver: Published (for John C. Coble) by The Louthan Book Company, [1904]. 8vo. Illustrated with 13 plates. 317 pp. Publisher's pictorial dark gray wrappers (minor rubbing, spine with faint creases, front hinge starting). Bright and fine, almost as new. FIRST EDITION, PAPERBACK ISSUE (issued simultaneously as the hardcover, no priority). On the ffp. is a later pencil note indicating that this copy was owned by Americana dealer Fred Rosenstock, and later The Gene Autry Museum (eventually selling it to a book dealer). Horn wrote this book whilst in jail, waiting for execution (he was hanged in 1903, and this book was published posthumously). Horn was a scout, Pinkerton agent, cowboy, soldier, and gunman (credited with 17 killings). He was executed for the murder of Willie Nickell, a participant of a range war, and, to this day, some people believe Horn to be innocent of this murder.

494. [WORLD WAR II]. GILBERT, G[ustave] M[ark] (1911-1977). Nuremberg Diary. London: Eyre & Spottiswoode, [1948]. 8vo. Illustrated. 289, [1, blank] pp. Publisher's full olive green cloth, spine lettered in red (boards worn and soiled, text block slightly loose in binding, text a bit toned). Good. FIRST ENGLISH EDITION, INSCRIBED BY DR. GILBERT ON THE FFEP: "Princeton, April 15, 1950 To Paul Harman with best wishes G. M. Gilbert". Gilbert was the prison translator and psychologist who interviewed the Nazi war criminals imprisoned at Spandau Prison during the Nuremberg Trials. Gilbert became a confidant of some of the most notorious Nazis, including Göring, Von Ribbentrop, Keitel, and others. He also testified about the sanity of Rudolf Hess. He would later testify at the trial of Adolf Eichmann in Jerusalem. Gilbert's work is still taught today.

495. [WORLD WAR II]. LEWIS, Wyndham (1882-1957). Hitler und Sein Werk ("Hitler and His Work"). Berlin: Verlag von Reimer Hobbing, 1932. 8vo. [184] pp. Publisher's printed wrappers with original wrap-around band ("An Englishman's Verdict on Hitler and National Socialism" – translated from the German). Some wear, creasing, offsetting to wrappers, some foxing, occasional soiling to text; wrap-around band is separate with a large tear near spine. Very good. Housed in modern clamshell case. FIRST GERMAN-LANGUAGE EDITION OF LEWIS' BOOK IN PRAISE OF HITLER. In 1931, Lewis traveled to Berlin and wrote a book, Hitler (1931), in which he praised Hitler as a "man of peace." After a second visit to Germany in 1937, Lewis drastically changed his opinion of Hitler and the Nazis and retracted his previous praise. Although he had earlier written books or articles critical of Jews, he wrote The Jews; Are They Human? (1939), which was an attack on antisemitism. The same year he wrote The Hitler Cult, an attack on Hitler and completely repudiated his earlier stance.

499. YEATS, William Butler (1865-1939). The Variorum Edition of the Poems of W. B. Yeats. New York: The Macmillan Company, 1957. 8vo. 884 pp. Publisher's brick buckram backstrip over light gray buckram boards, spine lettered in gilt, publisher's slipcase (cloth spine a bit sunned, rear board with light soiling; slipcase toned, rubbed, lightly soiled). Fine. LIMITED EDITION, #772/825 COPIES SIGNED BY YEATS. The planning of this volume originated in the late 1930s. With World War II looming and Yeats' fragile health, it was decided to have the limitation pages signed by the poet then, before publication. The final edition was delayed for various reasons until 1957. Included are: Preface, Introduction, Bibliography, Collations, Appendices, Index to Titles, and Index to First Lines. This is the definitive variorum edition of Yeats' poems. It was the editors' intention to note all of the changes that Yeats made to his poems in the course of their successive printings. The record begins in 1885 with the edition of The Dublin University Review, which contained his first two published poems. It ends with the two-volume definitive edition of his poetry in 1949, the proofs of which he had corrected shortly before his death in 1939. Poems that were published separately are included here in the section entitled "Poems Not Included in the Definitive Edition."

500. [ANTEBELLUM AMERICAN POLITICS]. CUSHING, Caleb (1800-1879) Manuscript for Closing Speech for the 1860 Democratic National Convention at Charleston, Calling for the Preservation of the Union. [Ca. May 3, 1860]. 4 pages, on verso of pp. 3 and 4 is written in pencil "Speech of Caleb Cushing as Pres. Of the Dem. Nat. Convention at Charleston, S. C. in 1860" on blue ruled paper. Cushing's text in black ink with his marginal notes in ink and pencil, including "Send Mercury" in pencil at the top of p. 1 (meaning that a copy of this speech must be sent to the Charleston Mercury newspaper). Each page approximately 9 3/4 x 7 3/4". All pages with horizontal creases, some marginal occasional chipping, some thumbsoiling. Very good. And: "Baltimore National Democratic Convention Delegate's Complimentary Ticket" signed by Cushing at bottom. On printed yellow paper or cardstock. Approximately 2 1/4 x 3 3/4". Marginal faint chipping, ticket soiled, creased. Good. Manuscript leaves, ticket, a photo of Cushing (a CDV?), 2 modern descriptive sheets, and photocopy of printed "Official Proceedings of the Democratic National Convention..." all mounted together on mat under plexiglass and frame. Frame size approximately 43 x 21 1/4". A wonderful item, handsomely displayed. Not examined out of frame. Cushing was a lawyer, Cabinet member (he was Attorney General under Franklin Pierce), and diplomat around the time of the Civil War. Cushing was the chairman of the Democratic National Convention, thus having the closing remarks. This convention took place in the South less than a year before the outbreak of the Civil War. This draft was written hastily by Cushing near the end of the Convention and has numerous corrections. This manuscript is slightly different from the version delivered, as per the printed record. An interesting manuscript by Cushing, who apparently feared the path of dissolution of the Union, and reflected this worry in his speech. "Finally, permit me to remind you, gentlemen, that not merely the fortunes of the great constitutional party which you represent, but the fortunes of the Constitution also, are at stake on the acts of this convention. During the period now of eighty-four years, we, the States of this Union, have been associated together in one form or another for objects of domestic order and foreign security. We have traversed side by side the war of the Revolution, and other and later wars; through peace & war, through sunshine and storms, we have kept our way manfully on, until we have come to be the great Republic. Shall we cease to be such? I will not believe it; I will not believe that the noble work of our Fathers is to be shattered into fragments; this great republic to be but a name in history of a mighty people once existing, but existing no longer save as a shadowy memory, or as a monumental ruin by the side of the pathway of time."

502. BUSH, George H. W. (1924-2018). Typed Letter Signed. [N.p., January 12, 1998]. One 8vo page on personal stationery with presidential seal. Addressed to autograph collector, Daniel Z. Kreisman. Sight 8 1/2 x 5 1/2". Matted and framed under plexiglass with a color photograph of Bush. Frame size 17 3/4 x 21 3/4". Horizontal crease visible on letter. Fine. In this letter, Bush states what he felt was his greatest accomplishment as President. Bush mentions Desert Storm as "the most dramatic accomplishment." And then Bush writes: "However, the most profound was the ending of the Cold War – the unification of Germany and collapse of the Soviet Union. Maybe this latter was historically inevitable; but the fact that it happened so quickly and without a shot being fired is something about which my foreign policy team can be proud." An excellent, post-presidential letter. Not examined out of frame.

509. [CHICAGO, TEXAS, NEW ORLEANS]. Archive of Documents Related to the Osgood & Grey Meatpacking Companies of Chicago, Texas, or New Orleans in the 1880s. [Chicago, Ft. Worth, New Orleans, ca. 1880s]. Nearly 55 documents, including autograph letters signed by Osgood, Grey or others, invoices, balance sheets. Nearly all on Osgood & Grey's stationery. Sizes range from 14 x 8" to 3 x 5". The usual toning, creasing, soiling, wear. Generally, very good. Osgood & Grey was a short-lived wholesale grocery company with links to the earliest butchers in the region. Some of these documents are on stationery of other companies related to either Osgood (Algernon Sidney Osgood, 1847-1908) or Grey (Joseph Grey, 1838-1910), some of which are in Texas or New Orleans. This archive reflects the meatpacking industry of the late 19th century in the United States. This archive shows the day-to-day functioning of that industry. Uncommon. Inventory available upon request.

526. [OSWALD, Lee Harvey (1939-1963), association]. MCDONALD, Officer M[aurice] "Nick" (1928-2005). Pair of Signed Photocopied Items Related to McDonald's Famous Arrest of Lee Harvey Oswald after the Assassination of John F. Kennedy and the Murder of J. D. Tippit. [ca. 2000s]. 2 stapled packets of photocopied items, one an illustrated article of the account of Oswald's arrest, with photos of the search for Oswald, Oswald's murder by Jack Ruby, and Oswald's corpse in the morgue (7 pages, rectos only white paper); the other packet is a printed (most likely a computer print-out) of McDonald's personal account of his arrest of Oswald (2 pages, rectos only, on thick paper). All pages approximately 11 x 8 1/2". Fine. BOTH PACKETS ARE SIGNED ON EACH PAGE BY OFFICER MCDONALD; THE ILLUSTRATED ARTICLE HAS MCDONALD'S MANUSCRIPT NOTES EXPLAINING THE PHOTOS OR MAKING OCCASIONAL CORRECTIONS. After Oswald fled the scene of the assassination, he encountered patrolman J. D. Tippit (1924-1963) who had been assigned to be on the lookout for "slender white males." Tippit exited his vehicle after spotting Oswald, and Oswald shot him to death. Oswald fled the scene, eventually ending up at the Texas Theatre. McDonald was summoned to the theatre and encountered Oswald (who was then wanted for Tippit's murder); after a struggle in which Oswald attempted to shoot McDonald, McDonald was able to overpower him and arrest him. McDonald was justifiably praised for his heroism and was promoted – ironically, being temporarily seconded to the Secret Service protection detail for Oswald's widow, Marina, and her 2 children. He retired with distinction in 1980 and wrote of his experiences with Oswald in Oswald and I (2013).

And: 5 autograph postcards signed by Brett to Pritchard. As per Robert Hess, the Sherlockian collector: "A number of years ago I was extremely fortunate to purchase en masse the estate of Jeremy Brett. Years later, I sold the collection to a friend and dedicated Jeremy fan. After their [Hess' friend] passing, I reacquired the collection from the family. It had been enhanced with photographs, autograph material and mementos from Linda Pritchard. Linda was someone I knew of, but had never communicated with. As most fans know, Linda first met Jeremy during the run of the play, "The Secret of Sherlock Holmes." Linda asked Jeremy for his help in raising money for cancer research. Jeremy help her set-up and support "The Keep Hope Alive" marathon, which raised over 50,000 pounds for cancer research. Their contract continued on with Linda becoming his close friend, his 'pixie,' caring for him devotedly during his deteriorating health at the last years of his life." 561. DOYLE, Arthur Conan (1859-1930). The Coming of the Fairies. London: Hodder and Stoughton Ltd., [1922]. 8vo. Illustrated with 12 plates, including frontispiece. [iv], [1]-139, [1, blank] pp. Publisher's full blue cloth, front board ruled in blind, spine lettered in gilt (spine a bit toned, boards bowed outward and soiled at lower margins, some soiling, offsetting to endleaves, endleaves with sticker residue or embossed markings). Fair. FIRST EDITION, WITH PHOTOGRAPHIC PLATES OF THE FAMOUS COTTINGLEY "FAIRIES." Laid-in is a brochure for a spiritualism seminar, "The Invisible Foe" at the Majestic Theatre, featuring portraits of four speakers, including Doyle, Camille Flammarion, Sir Oliver Lodge, and Maurice Maeterlinck. The Coming of the Fairies is Doyle's defense of the authenticity of the "fairies" photographed by Elsie Wright and Francis Griffith. The two cousins produced photographic "proof" of tiny fairies taken near Cottingley in 1917 and displayed in 1919, creating a stir in the spiritualist world. Although these photographs were revealed to be a hoax in 1983, these photographs and the controversy they created became part of pop culture, with films, books, etc.

[Long Valley: Murphy Doll Company, 1980s]. Large dolls (Holmes: 503 mm tall; Watson: 487 mm tall) in original woolen clothing. Each doll is hand-done in "needle-sculpture" and is issued in a limitation of only 125 dolls. Each of these dolls is in the manufacturer's original plastic covering and in the original box (some wear to boxes). Holmes has a pipe, and Watson has a walking stick, and both come with the original stands. And: FERRANDIZ, Juan (Barcelona, 1907-1997). A group of 3 hand-painted sculptures of "The Little Inspector". [Ca. 1977]. Hand-painted and carved wooden sculptures of a child examining a bird at his feet through his magnifying glass; a kitten is perched on his shoulder, and he is wearing a deerstalker cap and Inverness cape. One is approximately 6" high, and two are approximately 3" high. Sold with two postcards with similar themed children looking at various things through magnifying glasses. And: A group of 3 unique ceramic or pottery sculptures of Sherlock Holmes and Dr. Watson, including: DIXON, Stephen (British, b. 1957). Sherlock Holmes and Dr. Watson on the Moor. 1979. Painted ceramic statue. Signed on the back of the base. Approximately 10 ¼" high. One of Holmes' fingers is missing. - A pair of pottery statuettes of Sherlock Holmes and Dr. Watson. [England: Chelsea Pottery, ca. 1980s-1990s]. Painted pottery statuettes - commissioned work, one of only two pairs ever created. Statuettes depict Holmes standing holding a book and Watson seated reading a newspaper. Holmes approximately 5" high; Watson approximately 5" high. Holmes' book skillfully re-attached (some occasional tiny scuffs near book), Watson's right leg skillfully re-attached (some tiny scuffs at repair). And: LEWK, Jim (French-American, 20th century). Sherlock Holmes with a Bloodhound. 2011. Painted original copper sculpture with hand-blown glass magnifying glass on coral base (from Key Largo, FL). Signed on the base in marker. Approximately 22" high. And: MASLOSKI, Richard (American, 1954-2018). Bust of Sherlock Holmes. 1983. Plaster bust painted brown. Signed on the back of the bust. Approximately 12" high. Pipe is loose but present, one tiny chip on the figure's right collar. And: WHITMORE, Luques (American, 20th century). Sherlock Holmes Statuette. [New York: Candlelight Press, 1963]. Durastone statuette with hand-done patina, with engraved signature ("Luques Whitmore") and date ("1963") on the bottom of statuette. Statuette is on a wooden base, with an engraved brass plaque, "For Sherlockian Irving Fenton". Size of statuette with wooden base: approximately 17" high. Some light occasional wear, some tarnishing to plaque. This statuette was engraved for author (and Baker Street Irregular) Irving Fenton, who was invested into BSI with honors in 1957. These rare statuettes were created by Candlelight Press in the 1960s via mail-order. Each statuette was "hand-finished" by the artist. Candlelight Press was a small vanity publisher, founded by August Derleth (1909-1971) in 1963. Most copies of this statuette were damaged at Holmes' feet during shipping - this copy has undamaged feet (there is some scuffing on the pant-leg near the left foot, but this is not the damage that is common to these statues - the feet are generally chipped). From the collection of noted Sherlockiana collector, Robert Hess.

611. [TRUE CRIME]. Group of 4 First Editions in 5 Volumes. [V.p., 19th – 20th centuries]. 8vos. 4 titles in original publisher's binding (one in wrappers), 1 title in contemporary leather. Some general wear, soiling, joints cracking, ownership markings, wrappers are loose. Generally good or better. Titles include: Testimony of the Forrest Divorce Case (in the rare wrappers), Case of Catharine N. Forrest... Against Edwin Forrest... (2 volumes in contemporary leather), Prison Life and Reflections or a Narrative of the Arrest Trial Conviction... of Work, Burr, and Thompson... (cloth), The Great Harry Thaw Case or a Woman's Sacrifice (cloth). The Forrest divorce was a mid-19th century scandal of a married couple of actors divorcing due to the Edwin Forrest's infidelity – and his counter-charges of infidelity against his wife, Catharine. The Prison Life..., the pre-civil war title is by one of the prisoners, whose crime involved helping slaves to escape to the North. The Harry Thaw title is about the early 20th century scandal involving Thaw's murder of architect Stanford White (White had had a sexual relationship with Thaw's wife, Evelyn Nesbit, before she married Thaw – Thaw had a history of mental illness); this scandal was the subject of E. L. Doctorow's novel, Ragtime (1975 – later a film, 1981, directed by Milos Forman).

613. [TRUE CRIME]. HOWARD, H. R. The History of Virgil A. Stewart, and His Adventures in Capturing and Exposing the Great "Western Land Pirate" and His Gang, in Connexion with the Evidence. New York: Harper & Brothers, 1836. 8vo. 36pp. publisher's catalogue at end. (Spotting throughout). Original textured cloth, printed spine label (spine and label toned, worn, and chipped, boards worn, soiled, text toned, soiled foxed). Good. This book was in Stephen H. Gale's pioneering circulating library in the early city of Chicago (Gale published the first law book in Chicago and was Chief of the Fire Company before he became a Director of the Chicago, Burlington & Quincy Railroad. The manuscript statement of sale (on the front blank) was in the hand of Gale's relative, Augustus H. Burley (an original member of Chicago's Board of Trade) dated July 19th 1839. With the ownership signature (on the title-page) of Lewis Ellsworth of Naperville (Ellsworth was a DuPage County pioneer from Lisle, IL, and he became a county judge in 1839; he owned "Ellsworth Grove" in Naperville). FIRST EDITION OF "the earliest account of a detective's experiences in bringing to justice the Murrell gang of outlaws" (Adams). Adams, One-Fifty 73; Adams, Six Guns 1045; Howes H70.

614. [TRUE CRIME]. [LIBRI, Guglielmo (1803-1869), association]. Catalogue of the Mathematical, Historical, Bibliographical and Miscellaneous Portion of the Celebrated Library of M. Guglielmo Libri, Including Many Scarce Publications Relating to America... Part the First, A – L [and Part the Second, M – L]... London: J. Davy and Sons for S. Leigh Sotheby & John Wilkinson, 1861. 4tos. 2 volumes. 475, [1, blank]; 476-799, [1, blank] pp. Bound in near contemporary marbled boards, both volumes rebacked to style in modern woodgrain paper with brown and red gilt morocco lettering labels, marbled endleaves (boards worn, hinges repaired, text toned with neat contemporary price notes in ink on nearly every entry, remainder of original spines affixed to each rp.) Each volume with the bookplate of the Bibliotheca Sobolewskiana on fps. FIRST EDITION OF THIS TWO-VOLUME CATALOG, FILLED WITH STOLEN BOOKS AND MANUSCRIPTS. Libri, an Italian Count and Mathematician, eventually became the Inspector of Libraries in France, largely due to his famous love of antiquarian books and manuscripts. However, he was forced to flee from France to England when his theft of nearly 30,000 books and manuscripts was discovered (they were kept in 18 large trunks). France sentenced him to 10 years of imprisonment in absentia (naturally, he never returned to France). When he died, some of the stolen items were returned, but many are still missing. This 2-part catalog was part of 2 large sales held in 1861, which netted him over a million francs, allowing him to live a sumptuous life. These catalogs are an interesting relic of a bold crime.

615. [TRUE CRIME]. MCKERNAN, Maureen. The Crime and Trial of Leopold and Loeb. With an Introduction by Clarence Darrow and Walter Bachrach [Bachrach was the assistant defense counsel]. Chicago: The Plymouth Court Press, 1924. 8vo. Illustrated with photos of the crime scene and trial. 380 pp. Publisher's full dark gray cloth, front board and spine stamped in black, in the rare plain (apparent variant) dust jacket (flaps are most likely clipped by the publisher, and the price, $2.00 net, is on the spine (cloth rubbed, text toned with occasional soiling or faint markings, a few leaves creased at upper corner; jacket chipped, torn, toned, soiled). A very good copy in a fair jacket. FIRST EDITION IN THE SCARCE DUST JACKET – A PROBABLE VARIANT JACKET (this is a plain version of the jacket – the more common issue is with imagery of Leopold and Loeb – the illustrated jacket is rare, but this version may be the only version extant). Offered with the 1989 finely bound reprint edition, issued by "The Notable Trials Library." This title is the first contemporary account of the famous trial of one of the crimes of the century, and an unfortunate chapter of Chicago crime.

END OF SALE

CONDITIONS OF SALE

The lots listed in this catalogue (whether printed or posted online) will be offered at public auction by Potter and Potter Auctions, Inc., as agent for consignor(s) subject to the following terms and conditions. By bidding at auction you agree to be bound by these Conditions of Sale.

PRIOR TO THE SALE

Please examine lots. Prospective buyers are strongly advised to “in person” or by personally retained Agent, examine any property in which they are interested before the auction takes place. Condition reports may be provided if requested in a timely manner.

Condition of lots, Warranties and Representations - All lots are sold “AS IS” and without recourse, and neither Potter and Potter Auctions, Inc. nor its consignor(s) makes any warranties or representations, express or implied with respect to such lots. Neither Potter and Potter Auctions, Inc. nor its consignor(s) makes any express or implied warranty or representation of any kind or nature with respect to merchantability, fitness for purpose, correctness of the catalogue or other description of the physical condition, size, quality, rarity, importance, medium, material, genuineness, attribution, provenance, period, source, origin, completeness, historical significance of any lot sold. The absence of any reference to the condition of a lot does not imply that the lot is in perfect condition or completely free from wear and tear, imperfections or the effects of aging. No statement, whether written or oral, and whether made in the catalogue, or in supplements to the catalogue, an advertisement, a bill of sale, a posting or announcement, the remarks of an auctioneer, or otherwise, shall be deemed to create any warranty, representation or assumption of liability. Potter and Potter Auctions, Inc. and its consignor(s) make no warranty or representation, express or implied, that the purchaser will acquire any copyright or reproduction rights to any lot sold.

AT THE SALE

Registration Before Bidding - A prospective buyer must complete and sign a registration form and provide identification before bidding. We may require bank or other financial references. Potter and Potter Auctions, Inc., is under no obligation to approve the registration of any prospective registrant.

Bidding as Principal - When making a bid, a bidder is accepting personal liability to pay the purchase price, including the buyer’s premium, all applicable taxes and all other applicable charges, unless it has been explicitly agreed upon in writing with Potter and Potter Auctions, Inc. before the commencement of the sale that the bidder is acting as agent on behalf of an identified third party acceptable to Potter and Potter Auctions, Inc., and that Potter and Potter Auctions, Inc. will only look to the principal for payment.

Absentee Bids - Potter and Potter Auctions, Inc. will use reasonable efforts to carry out written bids given to us prior to the sale for the convenience of clients who are not present at the auction in person. Bids must be placed in U.S. dollars. If we receive written bids on a particular lot for identical amounts, and these are the highest bids on the lot at the auction, it will be sold to the person whose written bid was received and accepted first. Execution of written bids is a free service undertaken subject to other commitments at the time of the sale and Potter and Potter Auctions, Inc. does not accept liability for failing to execute a written bid or for errors and omissions in connection with such written bid(s).

Telephone Bids - If a prospective buyer makes arrangements with us prior to the commencement of the sale we will use reasonable efforts to contact said prospective buyer to enable them to participate in the bidding by telephone and we do not accept liability for failure to do so or for errors and omissions in connection with telephone bidding.

Bidding Increments - Expected bid increments are as follows:

Min Value	Max Value	Increment
$0.00	$29.00	$5.00
$30.00	$99.00	$10.00
$100.00	$499.00	$25.00
$500.00	$999.00	$50.00
$1000.00	$1,999.00	$100.00
$2,000.00	$4,999.00	$200.00
$5,000.00	$9,999.00	$500.00
$10,000.00	$19,999.00	$1,000.00
$20,000.00	$49,999.00	$2,000.00
$50,000.00	and above	10% of current bid

Note: the auctioneer may modify the increments at any time.

Reserves - Although the majority of the lots in the sale are offered without reserve, some lots in the sale may be subject to a reserve which is the confidential minimum price below which such lot will not be sold. The reserve will not exceed the low estimate of the lot. Reserves are agreed upon with consignors or, in the absence thereof, the absolute discretion of Potter and Potter Auctions, Inc. The auctioneer may open the bidding on any lot below the reserve by placing a bid on behalf of the seller. The auctioneer may continue to bid on behalf of the seller up to the amount of the reserve, either by placing consecutive bids or by placing bids in response to other bidders. With respect to lots that are offered without reserve, unless there are already competing bids, the auctioneer, in his or her discretion, will generally open the bidding at half of the low estimate for the lot. In the absence of a bid at that level, the auctioneer may proceed backwards at his or her discretion until a bid is recognized, and then continue up from that amount.

Auctioneer’s Discretion - The auctioneer has the right at his or her absolute and sole discretion to refuse any bid, to advance the bidding in such a manner as he or she may decide, to withdraw any lot, and in the case of error or dispute, and whether during or after the sale, to determine the successful bidder, to continue the bidding, to cancel the sale or to reoffer and resell the item in dispute. If any dispute arises after the sale, our sale record is conclusive.

Successful Bid - The highest bidder acknowledged by the auctioneer will be the purchaser. In the case of a tie bid, the winning bidder will be determined by the auctioneer at his or her sole discretion. In the event of a dispute between bidders, the auctioneer has final discretion to determine the successful bidder or to reoffer the lot in dispute. If any dispute arises after the sale, the Potter and Potter Auctions, Inc. sale record shall be conclusive. Title passes upon the fall of the auctioneer’s hammer to the highest acknowledged bidder subject to the Conditions of Sale set forth herein, and the bidder assumes full risk and responsibility.

AFTER THE SALE

Buyer’s Premium - In addition to the hammer price, the buyer agrees to pay Potter and Potter Auctions, Inc. a buyer’s premium of 20%, and the applicable sales tax added to the final total.

Payment - The buyer must pay the entire amount due (including the hammer price, buyer’s premium, all applicable taxes and other charges) no later than 5 p.m. on the seventh (7) business day following the sale. Payment in U.S. dollars may be made with cash; bank check or cashier’s check drawn on a U.S. bank; money order; or wire transfer unless other arrangements are made with Potter and Potter Auctions, Inc. Potter Auctions, Inc. reserves the right to hold merchandise purchased by personal check until the check has cleared the bank. The purchaser agrees to pay Potter and Potter Auctions, Inc. a handling charge of $50 for any check dishonored by the drawee. In the event buyer desires to pay by using a credit card, a convenience fee equaling 2.5% of the entire amount due shall be added to the buyer’s invoice.

Shipping Terms - By Potter & Potter. Choice of packing and shipping method is strictly at the discretion of Potter and Potter Auctions. P&P generally provides in house shipping via FedEx or USPS to winning bidders.

Please allow 3–4 weeks for delivery.

Customer’s obligation to inspect and report claims. Potter and Potter professionally and safely packs and ships thousands of items every year, and insurance is provided for successful purchasers. In the unlikely event that damage or loss occurs, these are subject to our insurance carrier’s rules and limitations. Customers are required to report, in writing, any damage or loss within 72 hours of receipt of merchandise. The carrier’s delivery record shall be conclusive as to this matter.

Correcting Shipping Address and report of non-receipt: Prior to shipping winning lots, customers must provide Potter and Potter with a current and accurate shipping address. Once an order has been shipped, any address changes or updates are subject to a $25.00 return to Sender fee, in addition to shipping charges.

In the event an item is lost during transit, it is customer’s obligation to report non-receipt within 7 days of the date on which the item(s) were shipped.

Third-party shipping. Certain large, high-value, and fragile items will require the services of a professional packing and transportation company, or pick-up directly from our gallery. We suggest that you contact our Shipping Department before the sale for advice on the shipping and handling requirements that apply to the lots of interest to you.

If third-party shipping is chosen by the buyer or required by Potter & Potter, the buyer will arrange for removal of the merchandise from P&P within 15 days following the sale and must communicate and coordinate removal arrangements with P&P during regular business hours (Monday – Friday, 9am – 5pm).

Arrangements for third-party transportation are the responsibility of the buyer. We will not be responsible for the acts or omissions of carriers and packers whether recommended or not by us. Property will not be released to the shipper without the buyer’s written consent and until payment has been made in full. Unless otherwise agreed, all purchases should be removed by the 15th day following the sale.

Risk of loss or damage in shipment. Any risk of loss or damage to the shipment through a third party carrier, once the item is removed from Potter and Potter, is at the risk of the buyer, and Potter & Potter is not liable for loss or damage of these items.

Ship to address. The winning bidder is responsible for providing Potter & Potter with an accurate address for the order destination as well as specific instructions for delivery.

Shipping costs. Shipping costs include charges for labor, materials, insurance, as well as actual shipper’s fees. Buyer agrees to reimburse Potter & Potter the difference if actual shipper’s fees exceed the invoice amount.

Storage fees. Potter & Potter will charge a storage fee of $50 per week for any orders awaiting payment and/or removal for more than 15 days following the auction date. This cost shall constitute a lien against such property, which may be removed to a public warehouse at the risk, account, and expense of the purchaser.

International shipping. Potter and Potter ships internationally. All shipments will include an itemized invoice with the actual and correct purchase totals including the buyer's premium and shipping cost. International buyers are responsible for knowing their country's laws on importing items as well as paying all customs and duties fees on purchased items.

Non-Payment – If we do not receive payment in full, in good cleared funds, within seven (7) business days following the sale, we are entitled in our absolute discretion to exercise one or more of the following measures, in addition to any additional actions available to us by law: (1) to impose a late charge of one and a half percent (1.5%) per thirty (30) days of the total purchase price, prorated to commence on the date of the sale; (2) to hold the defaulting buyer liable for the total amount due and to begin legal proceedings for its recovery together with interest, legal fees and costs to the fullest extent permitted under applicable law; (3) to rescind the sale; (4) to resell the property publicly or privately with such terms as we find appropriate; (5) to resell the property at public auction without reserve, and with the purchaser liable for any deficiency, cost, including handling charges, the expenses of both sales, our commission on both sales at our regular rate, all other charges due hereunder and incidental damages. In addition, a defaulting purchaser will be deemed to have granted us a security interest in, and we may retain as collateral security for such purchaser's obligations to us, any property in our possession owned by such purchaser. At our option, payment will not be deemed to have been made in full until we have collected funds represented by checks, or in the case of bank or cashier's checks, we have confirmed their authenticity; (6) to offset against any amount owed; (7) to not allow any bids at any upcoming auction by or on behalf of the buyer; (8) to take other action as we find necessary or appropriate.

Abandoned Property - In accordance with the Illinois Revised Uniform Unclaimed Property Act (765 ILCS 1026/15-191 et seq.), any property not collected within six months after an auction's conclusion will be considered abandoned. This applies to all property, whether associated with a settled invoice or a previously listed and unsold consignment. Potter & Potter Auctions reserves the right to treat abandoned property as it sees fit and act in its sole discretion, and may resell, discard, donate, or retain the abandoned property. To facilitate timely removal, the auction house will issue three written communications before determining a property as abandoned. A final notice will be sent once six months passes, confirming the forfeiture of ownership rights. No refunds, payments, or future credits will be issued for abandoned property

LIABILITY

Condition Reports – Potter and Potter Auctions, Inc. is not responsible for the correctness of any statement of any kind concerning any lot, whether written or oral, nor for any other errors or omissions in description or for any faults or defects in any lot. Neither the seller, ourselves, our officers, employees or agents, give any representation, warranty or guarantee or assume any liability of any kind in respect of any lot with regard to merchantability, fitness for a particular purpose, description, size, quality, completeness, condition, attribution, authenticity, rarity, importance, medium, provenance, prior ownership history, or historical relevance. Except as required by local law any warranty of any kind whatsoever is excluded by this paragraph.

Purchased Lots – If for any reason a purchased lot cannot be delivered in the same condition as at the time of sale, or should any purchased lot be stolen, mis-delivered or lost prior to delivery, Potter and Potter Auctions, Inc. shall not be liable for any amount in excess of that paid by the purchaser.

Legal Ramifications – The rights and obligations of the parties with respect to these Conditions of Sale, the conduct of the auction and any matters connected with any of the foregoing shall be governed and interpreted by the laws of the jurisdiction in Illinois. If any part of these Conditions of Sale is found by any court to be invalid, illegal or unenforceable, that part shall be discounted and the rest of the conditions shall continue to be valid to the fullest extent permitted by law.

Discretion - Any and all of the conditions may be waived or modified in the sole discretion of Potter and Potter Auctions, Inc.
